Fashion Roundup Colorful

. . . AT FAIR

Every color under the rainbow was represented by more than 300 Lancaster County 4-H girls as they paraded their clothing projects at the annual 4-H Purple Ribbon Show Thursday evening.

Using the theme of "Fashion Roundup" four of the purple ribbon winners were lassoed by young ladies in wester attire to signify the judges choices for the four club members who will represent the county at the state fair.

The four young ladies selected were; Luann Huenink, Hickman, shirt and blouse; Roxie Gee, Bennet, school clothes; Peggy Eickmeier, Rt. 5, Lincoln, coats and skirts; and Lana Salisbury, Rt. 6, Lincoln, dress-up.

Two alternates named were Pat Lopour, Lincoln, in skirt and blouse; and Christine Landon, Greenwood, dress-up.

Master of ceremonies for the evening program was Everett Larson, representing the Lincoln Jaycees.

The Lancaster County commissioners announced that $15,000 had been budgeted for the 1967 Lancaster County fair.

Showmanship winners were: sheep, Kay Munn of Waverly; swine, Rick Crawford of Roca; Dairy, Debbie West of Roca and beef, Linda Fahleson of Rt. 3, Lincoln.

Jets Score Oil Hits

. . . 1,827 REDS KILLED LAST WEEK

Saigon (AP)—Skyhawk bombers from the USS Constellation hammered oil installations in North Viet Nam Thursday after a record air strike Wednesday, the U.S command announced Friday.

A near record toll of enemy troops in combat and a rise in the ranks of U.S. servicemen in Viet Nam to 300,400 were also reported.

A spokesman said the Navy bombers struck oil facilities about 30 miles northeast of Vinh and pilots reported large secondary explosions. Vinh is about 165 miles south of Hanoi, the North Vietnamese capital.

Pilots said they observed one fireball about 150 feet in diameter.

American infantrymen clashed with a reinforced Viet Cong company 20 miles north of Saigon and Marines pursued operations against the communists farther north as briefing officers here sketched the broad picture of the war:

146 Missions

—U.S. Air Force, Navy and Marine pilots staged their heaviest attack north of the border Wednesday. They flew 146 missions — seven more than the previous high. The number of planes involved was also a record.

—Allied forces killed 1,827 communists last week, nearing the March 20-26 record of 1,988, in actions that cost them 330 dead. The U.S. death roll totaled 91, increasing such losses through five years of American involvement to 4,802.

—The U.S. Army in Viet Nam has been built up to 183,000 men in landings that pushed the over-all American commitment past the 300,000 mark. Listed for the other services: Marines, 56,000; Air Force, 41,000; Navy, 20,000; Coast Guard 400. A further rise to a total of 350,000 or 400,000 is expected by the end of the year.

A U.S. Marine battalion was reported by its commander, Lt. Col. Victor Ohanesian of New York, to have overrun and burned seven communist troop training and staging camps over the last six days in a jungled valley 20 miles southwest of Da Nang.

Commanding a company involved in some of the heaviest fighting was 1st Lt. Gerard Nugent, brother-in-law of President Johnson's daughter Luci Baines Nugent.

425 Wounded

The American death toll of 91 last week marked a decline from the 101 killed in the operations of Aug. 7-13. The wounded totaled 425 and eight were missing or captured, against 593 wounded and 11 missing in the previous week.

On the other hand 23 of the other foreign allies were killed, against 14 in the previous week, and South Vietnamese losses were 216, up 88.

The 23 allied deaths were among contingents of Australia, New Zealand and South Korea. There is no breakdown here of national casualties in those forces.

THE RANGER IS BACK AGAIN

The USS Ranger sailed into San Francisco Bay Thursday, returning from her second tour of duty that involved 8,000 combat sorties off the coast of Viet Nam The carrier's warplanes took part in the first bombing raid June 25 on strategic oil installations near Haiphong, North Viet Nam's chief port. Relatives of the Ranger's crew lined the Golden Gate Bridge railing trying to recognize faces they know. Helping to welcome the carrier were loudspeakers that blared the "Lone Ranger" theme song. Some 5,000 relatives and friends awaited the 4,000 crewmen on the docks.

Assurances Are Broadcast U.S. Can Meet Commitments

Washington (AP)—In a doubleheader performance, the Johnson administration broadcast assurances Thursday that America will not be sucked under by its defense commitments around the world.

"We are better prepared today to fulfill our worldwide commitments than at any time in recent years," Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said at the White House after a Cabinet meeting.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk told a Senate subcommittee, "The United States does not conceive itself to be the world's policeman." And he added that U.S. defense pacts with more than 40 countries are aimed at reducing—not increasing—the danger of involvement in a military conflict.

A joint McNamara-Rusk appearance before newsmen came after the Cabinet session attended by President Johnson and Rusk's leadoff testimony before the Senate preparedness subcommittee. They spearheaded the administration's response to criticism coming from both "hawk" and "dove" factions on Viet Nam.

Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., whose subcommittee members generally favor tougher military action in Southeast Asia, asked pointedly whether "we are or may be overextended . . . in the extent of our military commitments and our ability to respond to them?"

Rusk told the nationally broadcast Senate hearing that America's security interest as a big power extends not only to the 20-odd countries with whom Washington has formal defense pacts but also to other areas where aggression could upset peace in a significant way.

"No would-be aggressor should suppose that the absence of a defense treaty, congressional declaration, or U.S. military presence grants immunity to aggression," he said.

House Buries Senate's Reserve Call-Up Idea

Washington (AP)—By a thumping 378-3 roll call vote, the House defeated Thursday a Senate proposal to give President Johnson special power he didn't want to use National Guardsmen and reserves in Viet Nam.

The effect of its action is to permit such use of the ready reserves only if the President declares a national emergency.

The reserves controversy was injected by the Senate into a $58-billion defense appropriation bill already passed by the House without any reference to reserves. The Senate included it in the money measure by a roll call vote of 66 to 21. It is the only major item still in controversy.

Unless the Senate backs down in the face of the top-heavy House vote, the issue will be tossed back into the lap of a Senate-House conference committee.

The conference committee Wednesday came up with a compromise on which the House voted Thursday. It would have allowed the President to call up reserves for a period of 24 months—minus any prior training service—with the added provision that consideration be given to retaining "the identity and maintenance of individual units."

The House turned down that proposal by standing vote of 162 to 39 before the roll call underscoring its opposition to the entire plan.

Members favoring the reserve provision said a large pool of untapped manpower would be made available for the fighting in Viet Nam.

Omaha School Mill Levy Down, But Taxes Up

Omaha (AP) — The school board set its tax levy Thursday night at $36.20 per $1,000 of tax valuation.

It was the first time in 13 years that the board had not raised the levy. It is $3.55 less than a year ago.

The drop was attributed to an increase of 21% over the total valuation of property last year. Despite the cut, the new levy will cost the average taxpayer more due to the increase in valuations. The new levy is expected to bring in $28,823,400.

Suspect Held In Milwaukee For Burglary

. . . AT STEVEN'S

A suspect in the burglary of Steven's Credit Jewelers reportedly Lincoln's largest at $40,000 — has been apprehended by police in Milwaukee, Wis., Lincoln police said Thursday.

Bobby Gene Jones, 32, Arkansas City, Kan., for whom Lincoln police have issued a warrant in connection with the burglary, was reportedly picked up in Milwaukee with another person on a minor traffic violation, according to Lincoln police.

Apparently still at large is Jones' alleged accomplice, Ruby M. Conchola, 21, Kansas City, Mo.

Lincoln police said the auto in which Jones was picked up apparently contained loot thought to be connected with a recent Milwaukee burglary, Milwaukee authorities indicated.

Jones is also wanted on a complaint by the Federal Bureau of Investigation for unlawful flight to avoid prosecution in connection with a jewelry store burglary in Palm Springs, Calif.

Steven's, 1338 O, was burglarized by a person or perlarized in July by a person or persons who broke through the floor of an apartment and through the circling of the store.

Educational Camp Blends Study, Recreation

By LUCILLE HUTCHINSON
Star Staff Writer

If there's one thing kids will get out of the public schools' educational camp it will be a newly acquired fascination with nature study.

And family style fellowship —and swimming lessons and horseback riding blisters and much more.

By the end of August nearly 500 Lincoln students primarily from low-income families will have spent a week at the YMCA's Camp Kitaki 30 miles northeast of Lincoln that bustles with activity and enthusiasm day and night.

Visitors to the camp are not the only ones who acclaim the federally funded program ($14,612 federal and 10% local matching funds; which parents have admitted they would never be able to finance themselves.

Many children have liked it so well they have asked to return a second week. A 16-year-old boy has already—as an assistant counselor employed by the Neighborhood Youth Corps.

One ingenious fellow was so determined to return after his turn the first week of the camp he and another boy earned money to get a bus ticket to Ashland, found a ride to South Bend and walked with their suitcases and bedrolls the last five miles to the camp.

Got To Stay

With special help from Lincoln service organizations' contributions he was permitted to stay.

And when the last group of campers arrives at Kitaki next week that same boy will be among them, as will other previous campers slated to fill vacancies in the 125 quota.

For many of the children it is their first experience of science being brought to life by full-time instructors Robert Dawson and Alexander Currie. The Lincoln High School teachers are providing what they term a "recognition course" of insects, birds, wildflowers, weeds and trees, lamenting the lack of time to introduce identification and classification of students' specimens.

From the "questions they ask" and the "individual attention to nature study in their free time, we know we have been successful," Currie declared. He had been fearful the children "would only be interested in the play side of camp."

There is plenty of time for recreation, and campers boast about the number of different activities they can fit into one day. Kitaki features swimming—both lessons and free time, horseback riding, archery, crafts, canoeing, fishing, hiking and all kinds of games.

De-Emphasized

"Competition is de-emphasized," according to camp director James Arnot. "The competition here is between the camper and himself whom we're trying to enrich and mature."

Special events have included night trail rides and digging at a recently discovered Indian dwelling near the camp.

Campers are divided by age into cabin groups. Some of the boys sleep in "Tent City." They participate in meals, nature classes and most recreational activities in those groups. College students serve as counselors with NYC boys and girls assisting as counselors in training.

Lack of time was the only major handicap, counselors and directors agreed. The "kids are just starting to get acquainted and thoroughly involved when it is time for them to leave," Arnot said.

Perhaps that problem will be met by an informally-discussed suggestion: a two-week camping program for sixth grade classrooms during the school year so that more children of the most interested age would receive extensive nature study "in the field."

Rail Unit Rescinds Bus Fare Hike

The State Railway Commission rescinded Thursday its order under which the Lincoln City Bus Lines increased its general fare rates by five cents per trip.

The commission directed the transit company to immediately revert back to its old rate, prior to Aug. 1, of 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children ages 5 to 12.

This action was taken after several Lincoln city councilmen and local school authorities complained the bus firm had increased grade and high school student rates without getting specific approval to do so from the commission.

The commission scheduled a Sept. 14 hearing to review the matter and subpoenaed Mayor Dean Petersen, Superintendent of Schools Stephen Watkins and Mrs. Gladys Hipple, president of the Lincoln PTA.

The commission said its earlier order was based on an application filed by Lincoln City Bus Lines, which made no mention of the student rate and its approval came after city officials did not protest the rate request.

However, a company spokesman later announced that student rates would also go up a nickle.

This both surprised and angered school officials and parents.

Mullen (AP) — State and federal authorities are investigating a plane crash 16 miles southwest of here that claimed the life of a rancher and his 15-year-old daughter.

Victims of the crash Thursday were Claude O'Brien, 50, a lifelong resident of the area, and his daughter, Mary Jane.

Hooker County authorities said the Cessna plane crashed on a ranch adjacent to the one owned by O'Brien.

Non-Hitlerite Bonn Commander

Bonn, Germany (AP)—A non-Hitler general was named Thursday to head West Germany's armed forces in a command shakeup climaxing a revolt against Defense Minister Kai-Uwe von Hassel's policies.

The new chief, Gen. Ulrich de Maiziere, an accomplished pianist and descendant of a French Huguenot family, becomes Bonn's first postwar military chief who had not reached the rank of general under Hitler.

He wound up World War II as a lieutenant colonel in the operations section of supreme headquarters. He now is 54.

Hassel during the day handed discharge papers to the country's four-star chief of the armed forces, Gen. Heinz Trettner, and to the head of the air force, Lt. Gen. Werner Panitzki.

He said De Maiziere had been promoted to general.

Steinhoff For Air

Hassel added that he had named air force Lt. Gen. Johannes Steinhoff to succeed Panitzki. Steinhoff, currently chief of staff at Allied Air Forces Central Europe in Fontainbleu, France, had asked for a week to think it over, the ministry said.

Maj. Gen. Johannes Moll, De Maiziere's deputy, has been moved up to army chief.

No action was announced on Maj. Gen. Guenther Pape, commander of the country's 3rd military region. He joined Trettner in asking for premature retirement, protesting the minister's decision to let a labor union organize career servicemen. Pape has been asked to call on Von Hassel next week, a spokesman said.

Seen As Excuse

Political and government sources said the labor question had been used as an excuse. They expressed the opinion that the generals were seeking broader influence in the upper levels of the defense ministry, now dominated by civil servants.

Unconfirmed reports said eight other generals have asked to go into retirement.

Chancellor Ludwig Erhard approved Von Hassel's action. The two met soon after the chancellor returned to Bonn from Bavaria, where he had been vacationing.

They're Off, Running In Viet Nam

Saigon (AP) — The electoral campaign aimed at putting South Viet Nam on the road toward restoration of civilian rule opened officially Friday. It's a hazy campaign that a lot of people are watching for some clue to the outcome. The issues are murky, even for Viet Nam.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, the air vice marshal who took over the reins of a military regime 14 months ago, appealed to the nation's five million voters to support the elections. He cleared the way for stumping which he hopes will arouse the outwardly apathetic electorate.

Restricted previously to private handshaking and personal appeals, the 542 carefully screened anti-communist candidates for 108 seats of a constituent assembly now have two weeks to get their messages across before election day Sept. 11.

In his campaign-eve appeal, Ky said again that the national elections will be honest and representative.

North Viet Nam's radio Hanoi has opened an all-out campaign against the voting which it calls an American plot. Ky said communist agents in recent days have assassinated 37 people in efforts to disrupt the election.

To lessen the chance of U.S. involvement in incidents, the American embassy ordered all U.S. servicemen and civilian employes off the streets of Saigon each night at 11 p.m.

American authorities have predicted a 75% turnout of the voters. Consequently the election will be interpreted as a defeat for the United States if the figure is much less than that. The communists, who can terrorize much of the countryside, have accepted this challenge.

CWA Rejects Contract Offer

New York (AP)—The AFL-CIO Communications Workers of America executive board rejected Thursday a three-year contract offer by Western Electric Co. and authorized President Joseph A. Beirne to call a strike at any time.

Beirne said the proposal, affecting 22,000 installers, would have provided 3.4% wage increases yearly for the next three years, just over the presidential wage-price guideline of 3.2%.

Shot Tests Safety Of Apollo

Cape Kennedy, Fla. (AP)—An unmanned Apollo moonship barreled through a punishing roller-coaster path three-quarters of the way around earth Thursday and apparently developed only minor problems in a critical test which will tell if the craft can safely carry three astronauts into earth orbit this December.

The cone-shaped spacecraft, lofted on the sub-orbital flight by a 224-foot-tall Saturn 1 rocket, skipped down a fiery re-entry course through earth's atmosphere to test the Apollo's protective heat shield and other systems.

It landed about 200 miles away from the prime recovery ship USS Hornet, waiting at the target zone in the north-central Pacific Ocean, at 12:49 p.m. CST.

As curious gooney birds circled overhead, the USS Hornet pulled alongside the floating apollo capsule at 9:15 p.m. (CST) and lifted it to the deck. The trip back to Downey, Calif., was expected to take five to six days.

A preliminary examination of the craft showed that its protective heat shield was not as scorched as expected and appeared to be in fine shape.

If a detailed inspection over the next few weeks shows no major problems developed, the spacemen are to rocket into earth orbit about Dec. 15 to spend up to 14 days checking out spacecraft operations and to determine the physical affects a two-week flight has on astronauts.

FDR Jr. Quits Race For N.Y. Governorship

New York (UPI)—Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. Thursday angrily withdrew from the race for the Democratic nomination for governor of New York, a post once held by his father. He charged he was sidetracked by "boss control" even though he had 50% of rank-and-file support.

Withdrawal of the 51-year-old son of the late president left only upstate industrialist Howard Samuels as challenger to frontrunning Frank D. O'Connor, president of the New York City Council. O'Connor claims to have enough delegate votes for a first ballot nomination at the Democratic state convention in Buffalo Sept. 7-8.

At a news conference announcing his decision, Roosevelt recalled that Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., urged his party to seek a gubernatorial candidate who would attract the broadest coaliton of support, but he said they did not listen to Kennedy.

De Gaulle Is Greeted By Protests

Djibouti, French Somaliand (AP) — Somali nationalists and French police clashed violently here Thursday night shortly after President Charles de Gaulle arrived for an official visit to France's last colonial outpost in Africa.

At least 13 persons were injured, including five policemen and legionnaires.

Nationalists, who flaunted banners demanding "total independence" within a few feet of De Gaulle at the airport arrival ceremonies, turned more aggressive when their demonstration reached the city itself.

Nationalist mobs stoned police and troops in the African quarter. Foreign Legionnaires called in to quell the riot were met with volleys of rocks and bottles.

The president's special plane landed after a flight from Paris on the first leg of a globe-circling trip.

De Gaulle, seemingly unperturbed by the demonstration, walked through the crowd, shaking hands here and there and ignoring slogan shouters.

Black Power Serious Challenge To Nonviolence

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The black power move has exposed a serious rift among Negro leaders. Will it come to dominate the civil rights movement, replacing passive resistance? This article, the last of two, assesses the turmoil within the alliance of Negro organizations.)

BY DON McKEE
Associated Press Writer

Nonviolence has marched up against its most serious challenge since it became the dominant discipline of the civil rights movement a decade ago.

The challenge was hurled with the dramatic emergence of a black power faction that has pronounced nonviolence dead and integration irrelevent. A struggle has developed among Negro leaders over both ideology and tactics.

A leadership conference to explore the status and direction of the movement has been called by black power advocates. Plans for the meeting are to be made at a Sept. 3, Washington session.

Is the split irreparable? Or will a new accommodation be made?

"We're not far apart even in terms of methods," said Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., endorsing a proposal for a civil rights leadership conference made by A. Philip Randolph in early July after the emergence of black power.

King, Nonviolence

Since then King and his Southern Christian Leadership Conference have moved into the forefront of those opposed to black power, and its contention that Negroes should defend themselves from attack. It was King who made nonviolence, and passive resistance, the movement's dominant tactic.

In the face of black power's insistence that nonviolence is ineffective, King has pressed a campaign for integrated housing in Chicago where his followers have been repeatedly attacked in all-white neighborhoods.

Randolph, president of the AFL - CIO Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, got a cool reception from the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), principal proponents of black power, when he proposed the leadership conference.

"I don't believe in uniting for the sake of thought control," said Floyd B. McKissick, 43, CORE's national director. The SNCC chairman, 25-year-old Stokely Carmichael, who first raised the black power cry, said there might be a split. "I don't know."

Delay

Then in late July, Carmichael and Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., called the leadership conference for the Labor Day weekend. CORE supported the call.

The conference was delayed, however, Powell's office said later, and the Labor Day weekend meeting would be used for planning a conference probably for October or November.

What will come of the conference is uncertain.

King can count on the support of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, whose executive director, Roy Wilkins, rejects black power as anti-white.

Whitney M. Young Jr., executive director of the National Urban League, has said the quarrel is a "debate over slogans" and the league will have nothing to do with such slogans.

The crisis within the Negro movement has been developing for a long time. From almost the first mass protest, an activist element has demanded a more militant stance, new approaches, stronger measures.

Randolph

Powell

"If the nonviolent methods of achieving integration fail, what is the alternative?" The question was raised last September in Chicago by John McDermott, executive director of the Catholic Interracial Council. He said King was staking the future of nonviolence on the Chicago campaign.

Omaha, Then Others

One answer—to the broader implicit question of the racial struggle — came from Omaha's North Side. Then from Chicago's West Side, Cleveland's Hough and a growing list of other cities. It was Negro violence.

King had to fight for control during the Mississippi march when the advocates of black power called for retalitatory violence.

In the struggle for dominance, King has the advantages of organization and staff, his prestige, a proven method and the ability to raise money.

King has talked of taking a more militant approach within the framework of nonviolence, probably civil disobedience, to take the edge off black power's appeal.

The NAACP with its indispensable army of attorneys will, as Wilkins has said, continue "steady as she goes," working for legislation, striving for interracial cooperation, fighting the movement's battles in court.

As for the Urban League, many of its economic and educational programs are not civil rights work in the strict sense. The organization plans no departure from them.

CORE, SNCC?

What of CORE and SNCC, the black power faction?

CORE's programs so far have not been altered; only the ideology has changed. But apparently its primary objectives are political and economic.

"Community organization is the path to black power," says Herbert E. Callender, chief organizer for CORE. He said the aim is to build Negro political blocs that can pressure government into providing better schools, more jobs and better housing.

SNCC, which is composed of only about 230 committee members, still emphasizes political action. Carmichael has said he plans to begin organizing more third - party groups, both in rural Southern areas and Northern slums.

Abstract concepts don't fill empty stomachs, says Livingston Wingate, antipoverty director in Harlem. Black power doesn't mean anything to a Negro mother with hungry children, he once said.

"She doesn't want power. She wants bread."

Black power, like nonviolence - integration, aims at reaching and rallying the masses.

At this point, it appears that the major organizations probably will continue a loose off-and-on alliance, with an accentuation of the shift to greater militancy.

Many Negro leaders agree that if the black power line turns out to be racist or anti-white, it will fail.

James Meredith has said there were two aspects of the racial struggle. One is civil rights, which is "everybody's business." The other is a Negro movement to create pride within the race.

Black power, at this point, comes close to the second feature: A movement of black people, by black people, for black people.

Black power thus might become a movement within a movement, an adjunct to the drive toward civil rights and integration.

Bookkeepers Feel Impact Of Medicare

'Work Has Tripled' In McCook Hospital

By The Associated Press

At St. Catherine's Hospital in McCook, Neb., Medicare patients accounted for 75% of the general patient load during the first month of operation of the federal health plan for oldsters.

But as Sister Joan Miriam, the assistant administrator explained, this did not mean an increase in the overall patient load but rather how the patient's hospital stay would be paid for.

"All of the patients who are here under Medicare would have been here anyway," she said. "They are all sick and need hospitalization."

This impact on hospital bookkeeping has been considerable, however. "It has tripled the book work," said Sister Paschala, the administrator. The hospital has added one fulltime employe to help handle the added burden.

At Omaha's Immanuel Deaconess Hospital, the number of patients is up about 5% under Medicare but the bookwork, exclaimed Sister Ingeborg Blomberg, the administrator, "is terrible!"

Salaries Going Up

Stuart Mount, executive director of the Nebraska Hospital Association, said "salaries for hospital employes are being increased as much of 9 to 11%."

Medicare standards are high, Mount explained, and many hospitals have had to increase salaries to attract nurses out of retirement.

"Of course, you boost salaries of one group and you have to do the same for others," he said.

Dr. Dan A. Nye of Kearney, president of the Nebraska State Medical Association, said he knows of no physicians in the state who have raised their fees. He added, however, that charges on welfare patients have gone up. Such fees formerly were set by county agencies and were lower than normal charges, he said.

Dr. Nye said Nebraska physicians have been billing Medicare patients directly. The patients, in turn, make claims for reimbursement under the health plan.

State Ranks Low In Number Of Service Disqualifications

Washington (AP) — Nebraska ranks low in the number of disqualifications for service with the armed forces.

A report from the Pentagon and prepared by the Army Surgeon General's office said the 1965 results for the nation as a whole "indicates a substantial decrease in the total disqualification rate "—44%, compared with 53 in 1964.

The report said the over-all decrease seemingly is due to two factors:

—In 1965, especially in the second half of the year, a certain proportion of the registrants forwarded for preinduction exams were undoubtedly 18-year-olds who had been screened on an earlier examination.

—Mental requirements for draftees were lowered, beginning in November, 1965.

In total disqualifications, expressed in terms of 5% intervals, Nebraska's food at 30 to 35% with eight other states, including North Dakota and Wyoming. Iowa was low at 25 to 30%. The high was 55 to 60%.

In percentages of disqualifications for "mental" reasons—that is, general mental ability as distinguished from psychiatric evaluation—and those for medical reasons," which would include psychiatric causes the states ranged from a low of 5.1% for Iowa to a high of 48.2 for South Carolina. Nebraska was in the 5 to 10% rank.

South Carolina had the lowest percentage of rejectees for medical reasons, 10 to 15%, and Massachusetts the highest, 35 to 40%. Nebraska ranked in a group of 20 to 25%.

PARADE CROWD . . . lapped up 12,000 pounds of watermelon.

Horses, Melons Featured At Saunders Fair

By JOHN LEE
Outstate Nebraska Bureau

Wahoo — Horses threatened to overrun the Saunders County Fairgrounds—if watermelon rinds didn't get the job done first.

At the end of the route a truck loaded with 12,000 pounds of cold melon, a gesture by several merchants, greeted participants and spectators of the two-mile parade that annually opens the four-day diversion.

The boisterous crowd soon had the rosy fruit reduced to angular patches of green on the ground, and attention turned to horses cantering around the arena.

"We have a 25 to 30% increase in the horse classes each year," said John Sudik, superintendent of the show. He attributed the flood of some 150 to 175 entries to an increased interest in pleasure riding, noting that the Wahoo club alone has 54 members, most drawn from town.

Pony Class

To even competition and generate interest, a third class for the little ponies, 12-hands high and under, was added this year to the 12-14 and 14-over hands classes.

"So many young children have little ponies," explained Sudik. "They would tend to lose interest if they were put in with the larger animals, but this way they have a chance."

With the donation by a local business of a large building, a new horse barn is promised for next year's extravaganza.

Purple ribbon awards, however, didn't keep pace with the numbers as the judge found much to be desired in the animals and riders.

Cheryl Scoles of Mead received the single purple award in the large pleasure horse class, and sister Paula the lone purple in senior division horsemanship.

The best junior horseman, Norman Lindgren of Malmo, took only a red, and the top award, a blue ribbon, in the little pony class went to Tony Ruzicka of Wahoo. The 12-14-hand mounts garnered only red and white awards.

Susan Zaugg of Yutan took junior horse showmanship honors in the halter contest, and Mary Beth Sudik of Wahoo won the only purple decoration in that department, competing with yearling and two-year-old geldings.

Other stock classes promise plenty of contention, too, as sheep and beef judging started Thursday and swine and dairy animals come up for scrutiny Friday.

"The fair's growing each year. We're full and running over," said Board Vice-President F. J. Cook. Many of the animals will go on the auction block at Saturday morning's stock sale.

CPPD Power Usage Climbs

Columbus (UPI)—Consumers Public Power District (CPPD) reported power usage for the 12-month period ended June 30 totaled 1,544.7 million kilowatt hours, up 7.6% from the previous 12 months.

Operating revenues for the consolidated eastern and western systems was $26,363,886, down 1.8 per cent. Operating expenses increased 1.5 per cent.

Accruals for payments in lieu of taxes for the 12 months amounted to $1,106,797. The customer load stood at 117,820.

Man Installing Mitchell Lines Is Electrocuted

Mitchell (AP) — A 27-year-old Hartington man was electrocuted Thursday while helping install new electric lines in an alley behind the Mitchell Post Office.

He was Stanly A. Heithold, an employe of the Mamin Electric Co. of Fort Morgan, Colo. Heithold was frozen to a high voltage line, when his hand came in contact with the line. Fellow workers cut the line and used a boom truck and a grappling hook to free the body.

Another November Issue

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

Voters will have their work cut out for them in November. Along with a host of candidates at the state, national and county levels, they will face a bevy of state issues and a few local contests. Liquor by the drink will probably be on the ballot and we are assured now that the ballot will contain a question as to low-rent housing.

Air Base Housing

This housing issue has some interesting aspects to it. It is the product of the Lincoln Housing Authority about which most people know very little. The authority mainly runs Huskerville but its operations are due for some fair sized changes. It will soon become the agency in charge of some 1,500 housing units at the Lincoln Air Force Base. Already, there has been some criticism of this on the basis that the city should not be operating housing in competition to private enterprise in Lincoln. There may be some truth in that, but what are the alternatives?

Does anyone believe that those housing units would be left unoccupied to decay in a few years to the point of no return? The fact is that the housing represents a physical asset that most certainly is going to be used and it seems we are better off having it under the jurisdiction of a local body such as the authority.

If the authority receives the vote it wants in November, it will have still more work to do. A favorable vote would authorize the authority to enter into the construction of low-rental housing for the elderly. This is distinguished from public housing in that it would be limited to the elderly.

As now considered, the housing anticipated under the authorization would be no added expenses to taxpayers. It would be constructed with a 100 per cent federal grant, that grant including an amount to make in lieu of tax payments equal to 10 per cent of the rental income. Thus, it is difficult to see how voters could turn the project down from a local tax point of view. Of course, federal taxes are paid by local citizens, too, but denial of this project would not eliminate the expenditure of federal funds. It would mean only that the federal funds would be spent elsewhere.

A further question in the matter is one of need. There are studies and estimates of a low-rental housing need in Lincoln of up to 1,500 units. The low-rental housing need for the elderly could run from a hundred or so to many hundreds. The fact is that such need is very difficult to determine. Everyone's idea of need differs, to begin with, and need is not always the final determining factor. There are some who have a need but would not avail themselves of any relief because they would not want to move. The authority would deal with this matter by going slow, by starting with a pilot project of, say, 100 units.

It is likely that the authority would work in cooperation with private organizations that now maintain homes for the elderly. The one thing such organizations lack now is a program for the financially needy. Working with the authority, such organizations could come to offer a total package covering both financial and physical need for the elderly.

The final consideration in this issue is the philosophical one of government action. As in the case of Air Base housing, some will say that the government should not be providing housing in competition with private enterprise. But to those with an open mind, such a claim is subject to question.

The Quality Factor

It really is obvious that private industry cannot provide adequate housing for low-income groups. This is because such housing involves a subsidy and private industry simply cannot provide a subsidy. With a subsidy, there can be no profits and private enterprise just can't live with that. There is the further matter of quality, with some of the housing units cited as an answer to low-rental needs being next to uninhabitable. Finally, the authority program would harmonize with the proposed new minimum standards housing ordinance.

As someone pointed out, you can't have a minimum standards housing ordinance unless you have minimum housing into which people can be moved. If you have a standard that takes some housing off the market, which is needed, you have to have replacement housing and the authority program could do this in one of the most vital areas of need.

Poor Advice

Fred W. Friendly, former president of news for the Columbia Broadcasting System, is urging broadcasters to take editorial stands on national and world issues, whether they make people angry or not.

We have news for Mr. Friendly. We have too many people now broadcasting by voice or printed word with no real wisdom. The fact that in this modern time we have superlative means for communication does not at all mean that we have sufficient people to do the communicating safely. The modern world is already a frog pond of ill advised shouting. The reading and listening public is going around in a frenzy of misinformation and plain blatherskite. The loudest or farthest carrying voice is not necessarily the voice to command serious listening. Let us not run free speech into the ground.

A poorly informed person with only one listener cannot do much harm, but he can be deadly with a million listeners.

It is just as ridiculous to make the man with the most carrying voice a professor as it is to tempt a lot of people to speak out just because they have command of a microphone.

It would be far more to the point if Mr. Friendly counseled deep study on the part of the broadcasters before they took voice in hand and assumed the role of leaders of the common thought.

When one stops to realize that no mortal ever existed or is likely to exist for a long, long time who really had the answers, we should counsel much more silence, which is what the trained mind generally practices.

Not A Popular Move

The continued references by President Johnson to price and wage controls create little good feeling across the country. Should such controls come, they would be an answer to inflationary trends that the administration has had difficulty in slowing down. But the question is whether the treatment would be worse than the disease.

Wage and price controls mean an end to growth in the standard of living of the wage earner. This is the part of the thing that labor understandably objects to. It is the same kind of thing to which labor objected in connection with price and wage guidelines—lack of control over profits.

Neither guidelines nor wage and price controls bear directly upon profits. Both or any combination of them can have an effect upon profits but would not necessarily do so. Profits can still go up as a result of increased productivity and expanded sales as a product of population expansion or competitive changes.

Wage and price controls freeze the working man right where he is while leaving the management side to pursue greater profits. The President noted that since 1960, profits had "soared" by 83 per cent while wages had gone up 17 per cent and the cost of living had advanced 10 per cent. Is it any wonder that the working man is a little reluctant to be frozen into a situation such as that?

If wage and price controls are ultimately deemed essential, they will be accepted grudgingly by a lot of people.

'Maverick Mayor' Of L.A.

(Editorial Note: Mayor Yorty is a native Lincolnite)

LOS ANGELES—"The Maverick Mayor" is what Samuel W. Yorty of Los Angeles tags himself when he is campaigning. But some observers hold that "maverick politician" is a better description.

The fiery Yorty battles with his city councilmen and sometimes with federal officials, often regardless of party affiliation. Sometimes he wins sensationally.

Since 1934 the 56-year-old mayor has had a varied political record of wins, losses, withdrawals and changes of mind. Most recently—in the June primary—he ran against Gov. Edmund G. Brown for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Although he polled a surprising 427,000 votes, he lost to Brown's 522,000.

Even his adversaries agree that Yorty's news conferences and television appearances have been his most potent tools. Mrs. Rosalind Wyman lost her city council seat largely because of Yorty's campaign against her. She says: "Television helped Yorty get elected. When Norris Poulson appeared on television with his bad throat in 1961, a lot of people thought he was seriously ill. That indirectly helped Yorty get elected. People didn't want to keep a sick mayor."

An underdog in his first bid for public office, Yorty became a state assemblyman from Los Angeles in 1934. He was re-elected in 1936 and 1949. He aimed for mayor as early as 1945, after having been defeated for U.S. senator, and came in sixth in the primary. In 1950 he aimed for Congress and made it.

A candidate for U.S. senator in 1954, Yorty lost the Democratic nomination to State Sen. Richard Richards, and Richards lost the election to Republican Thomas Kuchel.

In 1960 Yorty supported a Republican, Richard M. Nixon, for president, against John F. Kennedy. Then in 1961 Yorty beat Poulson for mayor. Well established in the city scene, he defeated Rep. James Roosevelt by a resounding margin in the 1965 mayoral race. The office is nonpartisan.

During the recent primary campaign, Brown accused Yorty of bumbling the antipoverty program which might have alleviated some of the problems leading to the Watts rioting. And Yorty accused Brown of being out of town and out of touch with the Watts situation.

Clean Election Bill Is A Definite Need

WASHINGTON — When Rep. Donald Rumsfeld, R-Ill., killed the Mohole Project because $25,000 was given to the President's club by members of the Brown and Root contracting firm, he missed half the political story.

He also did two other things:

1. He killed a purely non-political project, sponsored by the National Science Foundation, the reverse of the much more expensive and more spectacular project to explore the moon, to find out ahead of the Russians what is the temperature of the earth below the surface, what causes earthquakes and volcanos.

2. He illustrated the importance of passing a clean elections bill to regulate more carefully big contributions such as this. The clean elections bill proposed by Johnson is now stymied in the Senate by Sen. Howard Cannon, D-Nev.

But the other half of the political story which Rumsfeld, a good Republican, missed is that Brown and Root have been financing Lyndon Johnson for years, put up around $100,000 for him when he was running as a young congressman from Texas. And today the defense contracts they have been getting from the government are far greater than the piddling $19,700,000 which the House last week lopped off the Mohole Project, most of which would go to Kaiser and National Steel, not Brown and Root.

A week or so earlier, the same House had voted a whopping big military authorization which carried around $438 million — nearly half a billion dollars—for military construction, of which Brown and Root will get a substantial share. Furthermore this military construction money for Viet Nam is unaudited and on a cost-plus basis, whereas the relatively significant $19,700,000 Mohole hole in the Pacific Ocean had been scrutinized three times by the General Accounting Office, while the government was to get every patent developed by Mohole.

Finally, it will take $25 million to close down the Mohole Project, remove the drills and advance preparations for boring into the floor of the ocean off Hawaii.

In contrast to the careful GAO audit of Mohole, Comptroller General Elmer Staats, head of GAO, complained behind the closed doors of the House Subcommittee on Foreign Operations and Government Information that there had been virtually no audit of military construction in South Viet Nam.

This construction is now taking place at the rate of $1 million a day, and for the first time in the history of modern warfare the basic work has been turned over to private contractors, a consortium of four companies, including Brown and Root.

They have been entrusted with building more than 10,000 pre-fab buildings, hospitals, warehouses and oil depots calculated to last 50 years, plus air strips better than those serving most American cities. At Cam Ranh Bay, the docks, warehouses and two air strips have made it the finest sea and airport in all Asia.

This extensive building program is one reason North Viet Nam refuses to come to the peace table. Its leaders argue that the United States plans to remain in Viet Nam indefinitely, regardless of peace.

The Rather High Cost Of A Government Secretary

WASHINGTON—If you're reading this column in your office, then please raise your eyes from the page and look at any five of your fellow workers. I wanted you to do that because, if you're average wage-earners, it takes the income taxes of all six of you to keep one GS-5 governments secretary on the federal payroll. But don't get the idea that the six of you can get together and fire her if she doesn't do her job. Shucks, you can't even take her to lunch.

That privilege belongs to her boss. (Firing, I mean. I don't know about lunch.) If the boss is a GS-15, his salary is three times hers, or around $16,000. It takes the taxes of about 19 people to keep this superclerk shuffling papers. I thought you'd like to know all this because the government is hiring people faster than ever before.

In fact, the Post Office Department is taking on employes at a rate that exceeds the population growth in this country. My slide rule indicates that, should this continue, by the year 1993, everyone in the United States will work for the Post Office Department. (Or, at least, they'll have jobs there.)

If you've finished crying, we'll continue. The cost of setting up the secretary, including getting her an electric typewriter, pastel desk, wastebasket (otherwise known as "the inactive correspondence file"), bookends, etc., is around $700 annually. She has a rug averaging 150 square feet.

Her boss, the superclerk, has it a little better. For one thing, his rug is 300 square feet. The rest of his stuff, including drapes, conference table, mohogany in-out baskets, small American flag, etc., runs about $1,000 annually. If the superclerk and his secretary share the same office, the cost is somewhat less. If they share the same executive chair, there's bound to be trouble.

While we've been having a little fun, these statistics are straight as an arrow from a report issued by the Congressional Committee on Government Operations. A few years ago the committee suggested that the Civil Service Commission make a time and motion study of federal workers in action.

You can guess how far THAT idea got. It was decided that the only people who could study bureaucrats were other bureaucrats and most of them were asked to report on their own offices' efficiency. Then everyone sent memos to everyone else, the secretaries retyped them, with eight carbons, and it was all filed under "inactive correspondence."

THE NEIGHBORS SAY

Skeeters With Big Tales

By MONA B. PARKER

Apparently there is such a thing as getting a car too clean, one Kearney father found out. Just ahead of vacation time, he had the family buggy all slicked up. And once on the road, came the inevitable din to stop for ice-cream cones. Loaded with the cones, he prepared to serve them to the children sitting in the car. He shoved a handful of soft ice-cream dips into what he thought was an open window. It wasn't. And that side of the car wasn't clean anymore.

There are stories about big mosquitoes, and then there are stories. Ray Jarusek of the Ansley Herald notes one such tale out of North Ansley where Bill Cherry has trouble while working in his garden because the giant brutes keep grabbing him by the shoulders and attempting to fly off with him.

A neighboring town claims that their mosquitoes fly about equipped with salt and pepper shakers. Mr. Jarusek discounts the report because the neighboring town is Comstock and "Krikac (Ed, of the News) is usually guilty of stretching the truth a mite."

However, there was one instance that he knew about personally and had no qualms about relating in its entirety. Wayne Scott was lounging against the screen on the front porch, when he jumped up with a howl and some unprintable words. "Examination of the screen revealed a giant mosquito with his needle-point nose bent over and securely fastened in the screen. The flutter of his wings flapping swayed the buds in the flowerbed nearby. Scott's brother-in-law rushed outdoors and was able to kill the mosquito with a baseball bat."

There was further rumor that another brother-in-law used the over-size mosquito as catfish bait on Sherman Lake but that the bait was too big and the catfish were afraid of it.

Gladys Lindstrom, lady editor of the Gresham Gazette says antique collecting is just about like a mosquito bite. "Once you are bitten, you can't leave it alone."

She describes herself as "pure plain amateur" in being able to tell the ordinary from the rare, but she makes up in enthusiasm what she lacks in know-how. And the good pieces, like gold, are quite often where you find them. And where you find them sometimes is tucked away in a dusty corner of your own attic or closet.

She suddenly remembered several pieces of carnival glass that had been in her own family for a goodly number of years, and deposited among junk in a box in the basement. Cleaned up and polished, they now repose among her china collection. Also among her favorites are nine old-fashioned bone dishes, and she is looking for more, although they "are scarce as hen's teeth now."

☆ ☆ ☆

Bill Plourd comments in the Nance County Journal that one of the main differences between automobile travel today compared to dirt road motoring 40 years ago is that the first few spatters of rain on a windshield in those days could make a driver's heart sink as he thought of the mudholes to come.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Wakefield Republican wonders if anyone remembers a carved wooden Indian on the main street there. The heyday of such figures was from 1850 to 1890 and they stood in front of tobacco shops.

"It seems these cigar-store Indians disappeared along with mud streets and long skirts. Well, we hope the mud streets never return, anyway."

Today's average citizen is numbered almost beyond remembering, according to Norris Alfred of the Polk Progress. In subscriptions, they need the zip code number now, and most subscribers can rattle off the five digits, he said. More people know that than their phone numbers. Usually people can recall their own ages, and most, their post-office box numbers. Everybody in Polk knows his address for the simple reason that there are no numbers involved.

And while everyone knows the price of gasoline, he can't recite his own Social Security number. Mothers remember children's ages, but fathers hem and haw. Car owners know how much they paid for their cars and can readily recite the number of miles on the speedometer, but only about half know their license numbers. Probably one out of 10 persons these days can tell you his telephone area code number.

So it's small wonder when someone claims, "I've got your number," that the first response is, "Which one?"

MARQUIS CHILDS

Little Real Change In China's Attitude

WASHINGTON — China-watching as a spectator sport has decided disadvantages. The names of the players are difficult and unpronounceable and the plays are subject to such a wide range of judgment that keeping score is all but impossible.

The current purge in Red China has an air of familiarity rather like that of a summer rerun on television. In the aftermath of Stalin's death in 1953 the news columns were filled with conjecture over where the center of power was. Malenkov was up, Beria was out, Bulganin was down. Much of this as generated by the so-called experts, both within the Soviet Union and without, proved to be wildly wide of the mark.

The important fact was that while the faces changed, the fundamental goals were not altered. At the highest level of the intelligence community here, that is the virtually unanimous view of what is happening in China today — whatever the outcome of the purge, it will mean no difference in the deep hostility of China's rulers to the United States and most of the rest of the world.

The conflict is over means, not ends. One faction, now apparently in process of being purged under the revived leadership of Mao Tse-tung, would proceed with greater caution. But so far as relations with the outside world and particularly with America are concerned, the direction will be the same.

In short, despite the columns and columns of newsprint predicting that Mao is out and Lin Piao is on the way up while Peng Chen is cashiered, little change of any fundamental importance has taken place. To score it otherwise is to indulge in dangerous wishful thinking.

Although the long-range problem of food versus a spiralling population is probably insoluble, the best evidence is that Mao and Company have effective control over China's masses through a system of eavesdropping and block-by-block reporting. Even with large purchases of wheat from abroad, food has been scarce, and yet European visitors report that rationing works down to the level of the smallest community. It is as nearly as the leaders can make it, and they've gone a long way despite the romantics who preserve the dream of another China, a community of ants working incessantly under constant propaganda exhortation for the state.

To this austere view of the intelligence community of how little the purge really means, certain qualifiers must be added. In his testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Prof. John F. Fairbank of Harvard University, perhaps the most distinguished of America's China scholars, urged that every effort be made to open contacts with China. His thesis was that China shouts hostility out of a sense of isolation and frustration. Anything that can be done to break down this isolation may abate the hostility, although Fairbank added that he did not believe proposals such as inviting Peking into the United Nations on a "two Chinas" basis would meet in the near future with anything but scorn.

China's hard line, Fairbank said in a recent talk with this reporter, is a hard line in words but not necessarily in action. The hard line in words may well be a compensation for a decision not to act and instead to play a cautious waiting game. The burden of proof, in Fairbank's view, is on those who say the Chinese are going to move in a warlike direction in a long bellicose tradition.

He faults Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara for taking at face value the speech of Defense Minister Lin Piao. Lin in a lengthy declaration proclaimed the triumph of guerrilla warfare in Africa, Asia and Latin America—the victory of a rural society over the city civilization of the Soviet Union, the United States and Western Europe. In Fairbank's view, this was compensation for China's failures in the developing world.

Those failures have been conspicuous and humiliating. In Indonesia the Chinese embassy was sacked and Chinese personnel forced to leave the country as the pro-Chinese policy of Sukarno was reversed in a massive blood bath. In several African countries, China's advances have been repulsed. The latest setback was in North Korea where the communist regime rejected both Moscow and Peking in favor of an independent course. Little Albania is Peking's only remaining completely loyal ally.

How much this actually means in the context of the purge is questionable. Fairbank and other specialists insist that China historically is not an expansionist power. What they have tried to do and failed was to pick up bargains on the cheap. The real question is whether the fanaticism of Mao and the dominant faction in the purge are not self-defeating in light of China's needs for industrial development and a broader exchange with the outside world rather than isolation.

"Let's take the family out in the country where it's quiet."

Up early, buttering the toast, cuffing the children and otherwise getting the day started.

"A book of verses underneath the bough,
"A loaf of bread, a jug of wine and thou."

So wrote the Persian poet and tosspot, Omar Khayyam.

He didn't put in "bread" to make it rhyme. He was thinking of bread. Gave it the same status as "wine" and "thou."

☆ ☆ ☆

The morning toast is made of a new, super-energy bread. Packaged in cellophane with little handy loops to close it up.

It is a wonder bread — or the advertising writer is a wonder.

You could drop it in your gas tank, and it would clean the pistons and make your car climb hills faster.

☆ ☆ ☆

Man has been entranced with bread. Poets have written 67 memorable poems to bread. (For comparison, poets have written only two poems to beaver hats.)

The new super-duper bread is supposed to give you energy but not run you to fat.

Eat it and you will not sag around the middle or bulge around the pistol pocket. Instead you will be lean and lovely and get going in the morning as if you were full of catnip.

I ate some, tasted and buttered. No burst of energy yet. But I'm waiting.

☆ ☆ ☆

A famous peom to bread was written by George Martin Lane. He was on the shorts in Boston and ordered the cheapest thing on the menu.

"The waiter he to him doth call,
"And gently whispers, 'One Fish-ball.'
"The waiter roars it through the hall,
"The guests they start at, 'One Fish-ball!'

"The guest then says, quite ill at ease,
" 'A piece of bread, sir, if you please.'
"The waiter roars it through the hall,
" 'We don't give bread with one Fish-ball!' "

George Martin Lane was mighty embarrassed. He wrote the poem and became famous. The poem was translated into Italian. They made an operetta out of it. "Il Pescaballo."

☆ ☆ ☆

I don't have diet problems. But don't care to bulge or sag either. Bread was sawed off on me a good deal when I was sprouting.

People said: "Eat the crusts. They give you energy."

Or, "Eat the crusts. It makes your hair curly."

☆ ☆ ☆

We went to school and studied history. The most famous historical remark about bread was made by Queen Marie Antoinette.

She said: "If the people have no bread, let them eat cake."

Millions of children learned this. That it was no kind of thing for a Queen to say.

However, to us it seemed like a good remark.

None of us were particularly fond of bread. But we were all high on cake.

We would have been glad to have a Queen who told us to eat cake instead of bread.

The bread was not pushed on us by fancy advertising. It was handed down by law from parents. "Eat your bread!" Crusty days they were.

Gov. Frank Morrison said Thursday he has named State Technical Assistance Agency Director Ron Jensen to assist families of Nebraska fighting men missing or captured in Viet Nam.

Children Urged To Search For Historical Items

Gov. Frank Morrison called on Nebraska school children Thursday to "prowl through attics and basements" to locate historical items for Nebraska's 1967 centennial observance.

The governor said he will ask the state's schools to cooperate in a "project attic centennial" and encourage youths to engage in a sort of statewide scavenger hunt.

"It would be a tragedy if old newspapers and magazines and historical objects were destroyed or lost forever," said Gov. Morrison. "I'm sure items of tremendous historical interest could be uncovered."

Lancaster County Girls Have Champion Recipe

By GLENN KRUESCHER
Farm Editor

Blend two Sandhills-bred Hereford steers from one of the state's best known ranches with herdsmanship provided by two Lancaster County 4-H club girls and you have the recipe for the champions in the beef show at the Lancaster County Fair Thursday.

Last fall Kay Munn of Waverly and Kimmi Fahleson of Rt. 3 both purchased club calves from the Monahan Cattle Co. Hereford herd at Hyannis for club projects.

Thursday this pair first stood champion and reserve champion in the Hereford division and when all breeds met to decide the champions over all breeds it was Kay and Kimmi with the two Circle Dot branded Herefords that swept the championships.

Council Prepares To Approve Budget

The City Council will meet Friday at 11:45 a.m. to officially adopt the fiscal 1966-67 city budget.

It is expected that the mill levy required to finance the tax-supported portion of next fiscal year's city spending will reach approximately 27 mills, compared to 25.50 mills authorized a year ago.

The exact mill levy figure —reached after learning new valuation figures from the county assessor's office and re-estimating balances left over from last year—will be made public at the Thursday session.

Before the public hearing on the budget held Aug. 16, the council had informally endorsed an increase of .12 mills to finance additions to Mayor Dean Petersen's proposed budget of $9,573,791 supported wholly or in part by the tax funds.

During a post-hearing meeting the council approved the addition of almost $100,000 more in that category, and members hopefully predicted that the final mill levy would center close on 27 mills.

Mayor Petersen had proposed a budget that required a levy of 26.39 mills, up .89 from last fiscal year. The 1966-67 budget — including both tax-supported and self-sustaining accounts — will top $39.8 million.

Matching funds for federal participation projects will also be appropriated by the council's action and will be added to the final total.

Under the city charter the council can't adopt the budget until 10 days after the public hearing, but must pass it five days before the start of the fiscal year, Sept. 1,—leaving only Friday or Saturday for official council action.

Court Failure Suspends Key In Car Ordinance

Lincoln motorists are destined to get a rest from the recently enacted "key in car" ordinance until the City Council has a chance to re-study the law and act upon it.

That word came Thursday from the city prosecutor's office, Chief of Police Joe Carroll and Municipal Court Judge Thomas McManus.

The crust of the matter seems to be that once in court, evidence does not support the charge, according to Judge McManus

Wednesday, the City Prosecutor's office dismissed 14 complaints against persons charged with the offense.

Four Dismissed

In four cases in which persons charged with the non-moving violation pleaded guilty, the case was dismissed by Judge McManus on the grounds that the evidence failed up support a prima facia case.

In other words, Judge McManus said, the evidence may show that the keys were left in the car, and the registration slip on the car may show who owns the vehicle. But the evidence does not say who left the keys in the car.

However, persons who so wished were allowed to pay the one-dollar plus six-dollar cost fine by waiver, Judge McManus noted. He added that by paying the fine in this way, the person involved waived his right to a hearing, to having the officers complaint read and to having the prosecution attempt to prove its case.

Based On Statute

The statute upon which the ordinance is based says no person driving or in charge of a passenger car may permit it to stand unattended without first stopping the engine locking the ignition and removing the key.

In a letter to Mayor Dean H. Petersoon, Chief Carroll and Ralph Nelson, City Prossecutor Fred Swihart said he was moving for the dismissal because his office has tried four cases and lost all of them even when evidence was stipulated.

Chief Carroll said Thursday that until further notice, his officers would not write anymore of the "key in car" type violation tickets.

Nationally Recognized NU Educator Dr. Stoneman Dies

Dr. Merle A. Stoneman, 59, of 3427 Washington, professor of school administration and elementary education at the University of Nebraska died Thursday.

Dr. Stoneman, with the University since 1941, was a national authority on school facility planning and construction and was widely known for his service as a consultant on school development projects throughout the United States as well as Nebraska.

He was also nationally recognized as a leader in school district reorganization.

He began his career in education as a superintendent of schools at Denton in 1929, and subsequently served as principal at Ragan, and as a superintendent at Rising City. For two years, 1936 to 1938, he was on the University of Nebraska staff as a graduate assistant while completing work for his Ph. D. degree.

For three years prior to his military service with the Army Air Force during World War II, he was on the faculty of the University of Akron.

Dr. Stoneman, born in Hamburg, Ia., was appointed assistant professor of school administration and assistant director of the University Extension Division in 1941. He was made a full professor in 1949.

At the time of his death, Dr. Stoneman was director of the Nebraska Commission for the Higher Education Facilities Act of 1963, and was secretary-treasurer of the Nebraska Association of School Administrators.

He was a past executive committee member of the Department of Rural Education and a former president of the National council on Schoolhouse Construction. He was also a member of the American Association of School Administrators.

He is survived by his wife, the former Lucille Y'Vonne Irwin; two children, Dean L. Stoneman of Lincoln and Mrs. Anne S. Hruby, of Ames, Ia; three brothers, Lyle of Lincoln, Marvin of Berwin, Ill., and Eldyn of Silver Springs, Md.; one sister, Mrs. Vivian Schwier of Lincoln; and seven granddaughters.

Edward, Not Bobby, Plans Campaigning For Sorensen

Washington (UPI) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., said Thursday he has no plans to campaign in Nebraska for gubernatorial candidate Philip Sorensen. But his brother Edward does.

Sorensen is the brother of Theodore H. Sorensen, former adviser to the late president John F. Kennedy.

The office of Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., said he would campaign in Nebraska "sometime after Congress adjourns" about mid-October for both Sorensen and Gov. Frank B. Morrison, who is opposing Republican Sen. Carl T. Curtis.

Both brothers plan western campaign trips to help a variety of Democratic candidates. They have left the details and announcement of dates for the most part to the individual candidates.

Edward Kennedy has firm plans to campaign for Sen. Paul H. Douglas in Illinois, Rep. Teno Roncalio in Wyoming and Sen. Lee Metcalf and Rep. Arnold Olsen in Montana. Other trips also are to be scheduled.

An aide said all the western trips would be weekend sessions so the senator can return to his home state during the week to campaign for Democrats there.

Zambia Wants Visas

Lusaka, Zambia (AP) — All non Commonwealth visitors to Zambia will need entry visas starting Sept. 1, government sources disclosed, putting them on the same basis as citizens of communist countries and rebel Rhodesia. Sources said the government is reported particularly edgy about "spies" from the Republic of South Africa.

Multi-City Economic Drives Urged

The chief of the Division of Nebraska Resources, David Osterhout, said Thursday more Nebraska cities should band together in industrial and economic development projects.

He said such multi-city projects are a growing trend throughout the nation.

"Industries usually consider a general area rather than a specific location initially," Osterhout said. "Cities presenting a united front speak well for an area."

He said such projects permit major promotional efforts at relatively small costs to each participating city and can reap big dividends.

"The area approach recognizes that an industry located in any one of the cities benefits the total economy of the area," said Osterhout. "The area approach ends when an industry narrows its site selection to one or two cities, but the important thing is to get industries interested in the area."

The Nebraska cities of Norfolk and Wayne and 12 Iowa cities, including Sioux City, recently announced formulation of an area industrial development project to promote establishment of industry in the upper Midwest.

Osterhout said other examples of area cooperation have been the Hastings-Grand Island-Kearney promotion of a central Nebraska area trade school and Omaha-Lincoln efforts to locate a nuclear research project at Mead.

New Post Office Bidding Cancelled

Kansas City, Kans. — Bidding for the new Lincoln Post Office was cancelled early this week, and the project was temporarily withdrawn from the market, a General Services Administration spokesman said Thursday.

"We have withdrawn the project so that we can prepare a more exact and understandable set of specifications for the contractors bidding on the construction," he said.

The bidding is expected to be reopened within two or three months, the spokesman said. Construction of the $3.6 million facility was initially scheduled to start in October.

HEW Approves State's Student Loan Fund Plan

State Banking Director Byron Dunn announced Thursday that the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare has approved Nebraska's plan for a student loan fund.

He said a Federal allotment of $54,560 has been approved to start the guarantee fund for students.

Fulltime students may apply for loans under the fund at their colleges or local banking institutions.

Only students whose family income is $15,000 or less are eligible under the state's Guarantee Student Aid Fund, he said.

Woman Files Suit In Game Incident

A damage suit seeking $10,000 plus medical expenses has been filed against Paul F. Hemphill by Beverly Beers for injuries allegedly sustained when she was struck on the head by a bottle at a University of Nebraska football game last September.

The suit, filed in district court, contends that Miss Beers was leaving Memorial Stadium the afternoon of Sept. 18, 1965, when "the defendant (Hemphill) did willfully and negligently throw and drop a bottle over the back of the south portion" of the stadium.

Miss Beers said the bottle struck her on the head, causing cuts, bruises and contusions. The suit said she suffered and continues to suffer headaches and has permanent injuries the exact extent of which are as yet unknown.

The suit asks for $10,000 for her injuries and $332 for medical expenses incurred by her father, James L. Beers.

Valuation Appeals Hit 25 At Deadline

Twenty-five notices of appeal affecting 18 counties were on file by deadline Thursday against the State Board of Equalization's 1966 property valuation decisions.

Scotts Bluff and Valley Counties joined the list Thursday of 16 counties that have filed notice of intent to appeal to the State Supreme Court from the state board's actions.

Hooker and Thomas County have also placed on the appeal list through taxpayer's suits filed by Ralph P. Vinton and S .K. (Bob) Hanna, respectively.

In addition to Douglas County's notice of intent to appeal its 24% valuation hike on urban valuation, the City of Omaha and six individuals have also given notice of their intent to fight the hike.

These are Julius Novak and Ben Realty, E. John Brandies Trust, Brandies Investment Co., Northwestern Bell Telephone Co., and Fairmont Foods Co.

Counties previously filing notice include Cherry, McPherson, Arthur, Lancaster, Perkins, Saline, Lincoln, Box Butte, Grant, Brown, Rock, Chase and Keith.

In sweeping valuation changes made Aug. 15, the state board increased valuations in all counties except nine.

Last year, eight counties appealed state board valuation orders with half securing full or partial victories before the high corrt.

FORMER LINCOLN WOMAN TELLS OF TURKEY QUAKES

A personal account of the earthquakes which hit eastern Turkey was received Thursday by the University of Nebraska from Mrs. Marie Perrin, secretary at Ataturk University in Erzurum.

Mrs. Perrin, formerly of Lincoln, said the first tremor apparently occurred at 2:45 p.m. Aug. 19 when the clock in the office stopped.

"It seemed a little stronger than the first one I had experienced here Aug 31, 1965," she recalled.

"Some of the people ran out of the buildings. About 4 p.m. we were told to go home. The next afternoon, Aug. 20, there was another rather strong tremor about 2 p.m. and a couple more in the evening. That afternoon there were six or seven tents in front of the apartment building. It hasn't been exactly terra firma since.

"I heard there were three more tremors on Sunday evening (Aug. 21) and early Monday morning. An old building in Erzurum collapsed killing five people and a new building cracked.

"Reports indicate that the situation is really serious south of Erzurum on the other side of the mountains. The entire hospital staff at Erzurum went to that area," she said.

Sorensen To Sign Payroll Checks

. . . AFTER FUNDS PUT IN ACCOUNT

State Treasurer Fred Sorensen said Thursday he will sign the September payroll checks on time as the Department of Administrative Services has now transferred the necessary funds into the imprest payroll account.

Earlier this week, Sorensen had announced he would sign no more checks after Sept. 1 until Administrative Services balanced the books through July 30.

At that time, the payroll fund showed a $4.3 million deficit through July 30 and had climbed to $7.7 million in August.

"It is sad that employees and vendors must be in doubt as to when they will recieve their state warrants," he said, "but I want to make it clear that the state treasurer's office is trying to abide by the state statutes."

Sorensen emphasized the delays in the past or future in the state warrants reaching employes and vendors are "no fault" of his office.

The problems of delayed transfers and balances were also aired this week before the Legislative Council's executive and budget committee members who are concerned with administrative functioning of the Administrative Services Department.

Sorensen said he would continue his announced policy of not signing payroll checks until the imprest payroll fund is balanced for the previous month "unless the accounting mess in Administrative Services is resolved in the immediate future."

More U.S. Recreation

Washington (UPI)—Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall said Americans were allocating more land to recreation than ever before.

Stanley Signs State Voucher To Hastings Technical School

Assistant State Education Commissioner Cecil Stanley reported Thursday he has signed a voucher granting $100,000 in state funds to the Central Nebraska Area Vocational Technical School.

The grant, authorized by the last Legislature, was approved after school officials reported at least $100,000 in matching funds has been credited to the school.

School officials provided Stanley with evidence that a sufficient number of central Nebraska counties have certified a 1.25 mill levy to finance operations of the school, which will open this fall at the old Hastings Naval Ammunition Depot.

The 1965 Legislature passed a law authorizing state grants of $100,000 to any area trade school which would provide matching funds.

Stanley denied that state officials have dragged their feet in approving the Hastings grant. He said school officials had to provide evidence of matching funds before the state dollars could be released.

We've been handcuffed!

For six weeks, Frontier has been tied down by an airline strike that didn't involve any of our employees.

Sure, we were flying, but during the strike much of our effort had to be directed toward filling the gap left by the absence of the struck carriers.

What we really wanted to be doing was making progress like this:

FARES—We wanted to get going with innovations in air fares such as the new "guaranteed seat" provision in our standby Half-Fare-Plan. Now if you stand by for a half-fare seat on a Frontier flight and the plane fills up before we can accommodate you, we guarantee you a reserved seat on the next available flight—still at half-fare.

SERVICE—Frontier is continually striving to increase and improve service to cities throughout Frontierland. Additional service was scheduled to go into effect on July 15 in Billings, Denver, Casper, Cheyenne, Miles City, Minot, Williston and Salt Lake City. All of this had to wait until after the strike.

ROUTE EXPANSION—With the airline industry at a standstill for six weeks, nothing could be done about Frontier's route proposals now before the Civil Aeronautics Board. We are ready to expand—to serve you and our territory better. And we demonstrated this by flying more than 30 special flights daily during the strike.

We've been itching to get moving again. The first of our Arrow-Jets (we've bought 5 new Boeing Fan Jet 727's) will be here shortly. And we will be flying them by October.

We claim to be the airline that knows—and serves—the West. Best. And we mean to live up to our claims. Doesn't every airline?

TOWN TALK

August and the populace have one thing in common—both are marking time until September makes its entrance. In the meantime there is news of one variety and another—and we have been in pursuit of a certain gentleman around town who gave us a glimpse of a solitaire and a diamond wedding ring—and then disappeared after threatening us with death and disaster if we mentioned it.

We are sure that both rings have been placed on the proper finger of a lady's hand—but the question is—which lady?

* * *

We also picked up some news about a brand new dancing club for the young married set—age bracket, early 20's. And more about the club later.

* * *

The AAU national championship swimming and diving meet is a thing of the past—but it is not forgotten.

Mrs. O. J. Hitchcock, for instance, is remembering last weekend because of her grandson, Hugh Wilder, who participated in the competition—and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Wilder—all of Winnipeg, Canada.

Young Mr. Wilder represented Villanova University at Villanova, Pa., but will be a junior at Denison University, Granville, Ohio, this year.

Villanova and Hugh Wilder became acquainted when the swimming coach at Villanova was in Baghdad where the Wilders were residing while the young man's father was librarian at the American University in Iraq.

Anyway Mr. and Mrs. Wilder and their son left earlier this week to return to Winnipeg where Mr. Wilder now is librarian at the University of Manitoba.

As you probably know, the wedding of Miss Susan Unthank and Harvey Perlman takes place on Saturday, and last evening Mr. Perlman's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Lashinsky. entertained at a dinner party at their home in courtesy to their grandson and his fiancee. The guest list included members of the families and out of town relatives.

* * *

And this evening Mr. Perlman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ted Perlman, will honor their son and his bride-to-be when they preside at dinner at the Black Coach Supper Club. Places will be arranged for the families, the bridal party and out of town guests.

NEWS of suburbia in past, present, future tense

Several times during the summer, as skies darkened and raindrops began to fall, mothers in Suburbia probably chanted the old rhyme, "Rain, rain go away . . ." and added their own ending to it; something to the effect that Mom wished Johnny would go out and play instead of messing up the house and making all that racket.

Now, everyone can begin to relax, and simply dream ahead to the not-too-distant future, when the younger generation will be back in school. It should help to make the rainy days—and the sunny, dusty days—more bearable.

Some suburban residents, however, have been too busy to think ahead too far. Guests and vacations have been keeping them occupied.

COUNTRY CLUB TERRACE

A cabin located close to scenic Table Rock reservoir made an extremely enjoyable 10-day vacation in southern Missouri even more enjoyable for Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Smith, Susan, Craig and Kim. While there, they had fun taking part in all of the water-related activities which included, among other things, boating, fishing and skiing.

WEDGEWOOD MANOR

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendricks decided on a three-week west coast vacation for their summer's relaxation, and had a wonderful time. Mrs. Hendricks tells us that the scenery was beautiful and the weather—for once—cooperated.

Traveling to Oakland, Calif., they met a nephew and niece, and went with them throughout California, Oregon and Washington, making the weeks serve double duty for sightseeing and for visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Shephard are probably looking forward to fall as a time to relax, and looking back on their summer as a very busy time—especially the last few weeks.

After a four-day visit, they said goodbye to company from Iowa on Wednesday, August 17. Mrs. Shephard's sister, Mrs. Neil Mark, came from Des Moines, bringing with her daughters Kim and Kathy, and bringing the two Shephard children home. Tommy, 15, had spent his summer in Madison, Wis., and his sister Terri, 13, had been staying with her aunt and cousins.

The week before, Mr. and Mrs. Shephard entertained Mrs. Barbara Wackerman at their home for five days. Mrs. Wackerman came to Lincoln to attend her Lincoln High School class reunion.

Sunday, August 7, several friends were invited to Mr. and Mrs. Shephard's home for a party and a small "private reunion." The guests, all in Lincoln for the LHS reunion, were Mrs. Dick Burke of Portland, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Peterson of Madison, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Nelson of Houston, Tex.

LINCOLN HEIGHTS

Weekend guests brought recent activity to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Dunlap. They entertained Mr. Dunlap's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Stokes and family of Omaha.

pretend you don't care

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Even tho I am only 13, I KNOW I am in love. Don't tell me I don't know what love is because for the last week all I have done is CRIED over him. Loving him is no problem, but him loving ME is the problem.

Not long ago I thought I had a chance, but now there is no hope because of an eleven-year-old girl who is throwing herself at him. Please tell me how to get him back, Abby? I will do ANYTHING.

BROKEN-HEARTED IN FLORENCE, S. C.

DEAR B. H.: It is difficult to compete with a "younger woman." But dry your tears honey, and pretend you don't care. It may not win him back but at least you will show courage and good sportsmanship.

And if you're still crying by your 14th birthday, write again and we'll try something else.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I have a story to tell and if you print it and it makes just one kid realize what can happen because of his own selfishness, it might make up for the harm I did to two families.

I am a 20-year-old college sophomore who has carried a fake I. D. card for two years.

I don't drink much, but I used it to get into places where you have to be 21. Well, I went to this tavern and ordered a gin and tonic. The waitress asked to see my I.D. and I showed it to her. She served me. I had only one drink and left.

As I was getting into my car, a police officer stopped me and asked to see my I.D. He knew right away it was fake, so he took me down to the station and here is what happened: The two brothers who owned that tavern lost their liquor license. I found out later they were both World War II veterans with families. They worked and saved for 15 years, and then borrowed in order to buy that little tavern. They were doing just great until this happened. They lost their business and will probably lose their homes. And it's all my fault because I had to have a drink before I reached the legal age to buy one.

DEAR ABBY: Why doesn't somebody tell BENCH-WARMER'S MOTHER to read the rule book? Little League rules state that each player must play a minimum of TWO INNINGS per game.

One play constitutes an inning which may not be much, but at least it gives every player a chance to play.

Doctor's report on a frequent cause of:

UGLY SKIN

"A Philadelphia doctor, Dr. Albert M. Kligman, reported to members of the Florida Society of Dermatology that the cause of many skin eruptions was fatty human skin oils. All persons, of course, have these oils, but some people react adversely to them. To prove this theory, investigators applied human oil to rabbits and produced acne-like pimples. Dr. Kligman, who is Professor of Dermatology at the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, said human oil is the most complicated fatty substance in all biology".

P.S. From the doctor's report, it is obvious that to help attain a clear, smooth skin, you should remove any excess fatty oils. A good way to do this is to use a facial masque with some lemon in it. Ask your druggist for Lemon Peel Facial Masque and he can order it for you if he doesn't already have it. Use this, and very shortly there should be good skin improvement.

it's time for a bidding quiz

B. Jay Becker

BIDDING QUIZ

Your right-hand opponent opens with three hearts, neither side vulnerable. What would you bid now with each of the following five hands?

1. ♠A85 ♥J ♦AK7 ♣KQJ983
2. ♠A9 ♥KQ82 ♦AK983 ♣KJ
3. ♠6 ♥J74 ♦AQ8653 ♣AJ5
4. ♠AKJ9832 ♥7 ♦K6 ♣AJ8
5. ♠AK765 ♥— ♦KQ94 ♣AQJ2

1. Double. The hand is too good for a mere overcall of four clubs. While partner would read four clubs as showing a good hand, he could hardly expect it to have these values. A four club bid would be more likely to show the same hand with the deuce of diamonds in place of the king.

The double is primarily for takeout. It indicates considerable strength and requests partner to reply accordingly. Partner is permitted to pass, thus changing the takeout double into a business double whenever he thinks it is better to play for penalties.

2. Three notrump. This bid means what it says—a desire to play in notrump. Partner is not being asked to bid and should do so only when he has good reason to believe that a suit contract is better. It would be dangerous to double because there is almost no chance of partner's passing and his response might carry the bidding past three notrump.

3. Pass. Little can be gained and much can be lost by competing at this point. To overcall, with four diamonds might bring disaster, since your left-hand opponent could have the balance of strength and diamond length as well. If partner is unable to bid after your pass there is very little future to the hand.

4. Four spades. Here decisive action must be taken. Partner doesn't need much for your side to have a game. Of course, it is possible for the next player to double you successfully for penalties but this risk is more than offset by the possibility of a long spade game if you were to bid only three spades, which partner could pass with just the few scattered values you need.

Whenever you come face to face with a preemptive bid, you are courting some kind of danger; the trick is to react in a sensible manner, without being too pesimistic or optimistic.

5. Four hearts. This is an ideal hand for a cuebid. You have to assume that game is likely in any suit partner names as trump, and a slam is certainly not out of the question. Since partner is forced to respond and may have a poor hand, you must act cautiously thereafter, passing any minimum response. The important thing is to tell partner right away that you have a big hand with first-round control of hearts.

SPORT SIGNALS

By Hal Brown
Sports Editor, The Star

Quoting Sports Figures

Quoting sports figures and starting with one of the most quotable men in sports:

After being given a job by the Los Angeles Dodgers, former Lincoln Chiefs' slugger Dick Stuart noticed he was listed to start at first base in a third straight game.

"What does Alston (Dodgers manager Walt) think I am, a machine?" Dick quipped.

After being hit on the helmet by a pitch, Dodgers' trainer Bill Buhler asked Stuart if he felt dizzy.

"No more than usual," was Dick's reply.

During the Western Open at Chicago's Medinah Country Club, contestants were using everything from a driver to a 3-iron off the tee on the last hole, a 411-yard, par-4 with an abrupt dogleg to the right.

Tommy Bolt's solution: "Hit the driver with a duck slice."

Ed Husmann, former Nebraska all-conference defensive tackle from Ogallala who is now playing with Edmonton in the Canadian Football League after stints in both the National and American Football Leagues, discussing the championship game between the NFL and AFL:

"I think the American League representative will do quite well. The first couple of years, I think the two leagues were far apart talent-wise, but I think they are very close now. The American League certainly won't be embarrassed in the game."

The new Miami Dolphins in the American Football League have a special dolphin named Flipper of television fame to retrieve footballs from the pond behind the goal posts in the Orange Bowl.

Flipper is being trained to soar into the air after each Miami touchdown, but Miami public relations consultant Julian Cole has another trick up his sleeve to help the Dolphins defensively.

"I'm training Flipper to stick his head out of the tank when the other guys are in scoring range and stare at the visiting quarterback," explains Cole.

Answering Mail Call

Joe Stevenson, a reader from Seward, has both a compliment and a gripe about The Star's sports coverage.

"In regard to your sports page, I would like to say that your coverage of local sports is very good," Stevenson writes. "But although your write-ups of the major league baseball games are interesting, you do not publish enough photos.

"You have photos day after day of the city golf contenders. Interesting, but when a pennant race is as close as the one in the National League, I believe you should have one or two photos a day to accompany the banner (which is usually about baseball games)!

"I enjoy local sports as much as the next person, but enough is enough."

COMMENT—Enough is enough all right, but it is felt that people don't tire as quickly of seeing a picture of someone they know as they might of picture after picture of baseball player sliding into second base. When local activity is slight, we use major league baseball pictures.

Clarence Swanson, a Shriner, member of the Nebraska Board of Regents and the Nebraska N-Club, offers thanks to the Shrine Bowl Committee for calling off Saturday's game after three quarters.

"A big thank you to the Shrine Bowl Committee for halting the Shrine Game Saturday before the field could be damaged," Swanson writes. "Coach Bob Devaney never once used this field for spring training so that it would be the kind of a field that he wanted for the Nebraska games.

"The young players made a fine contribution to a very worthy cause and many of them have their football still ahead of them and the rest will have wonderful memories of this day, performing before the biggest crowd of their careers."

COMMENT—Swanson, a former great Nebraska gridder, always has great thoughts on any subject he discusses. We have yet to disagree with any of them.

Fred P. Komarek of Hebron sends thanks for publishing his and other Southeast Nebraska residents' views on hunting seasons.

"If and when you are in Hebron, stop in and bring your shotgun and fishin' pole," Komarek offers.

COMMENT—Komarek's petition signers weren't the only ones whose ideas were ignored by the Nebraska Game Commission in setting hunting seasons Wednesday.

Weiskopf Shoots 66 For Lead At Philadelphia

. . . ROOKIE USES BORROWED PUTTER FOR NINE ONE-PUTT GREENS

Whitemarsh, Pa. (AP)—Rookie Tom Weiskopf, using a mallet-head putter borrowed from a friend, had nine one-putt greens Thursday as he scored a six-under-par 66 for a two-stroke lead in the first round of the $110,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic.

While the 23-year-old long ball hitter turned to finesse in conquering the tight fairways of Whitemarsh Valley Country Club's 6,708-yard layout, U.S. Open Champion Billy Casper, Masters king Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer struggled behind him.

Casper, who has won four tournaments this year equalled par 72, as did Nicklaus, seeking to become the third golfer ever to win the same tournament three straight years. Palmer cut one stroke off regulation with a 35-36—71.

Weiskopf scored seven birdies and an eagle, reached 16 greens in par or better and almost couldn't miss with the mallethead putter that sent the ball toward the hole as if it were radar directed.

The Kid, listed by Palmer as possibly the most promising rookie on the pro tour, played the type of golf that prompted the late Tony Lema to tell him recently:

"I wish I had all the money you are going to win on the tour."

Two strokes off were Bob Goalby and Dan Sikes, each with 68. In with 69's were Julius Boros, Robert Ginsburg, Jay Herbert, Butch Baird, John Cook, M. C. Fitts and Don January. New Zealand left-hander Bob Charles, Tommy Jacobs, Bill Martindale and Terry Dill each posted 70.

Weiskopf missed by inches making his second hole-in-one in three weeks His two-iron tee shot off the 235-yard, par-3 fourth hole, rolled around the cup and stopped on the lip.

Weiskopf credited his best opening round of the year to a new putter he borrowed from Eddie Griffiths, a fellow tourist from Fort Meyers, Fla.

"I had been using a putter Arnold Palmer made for me," Weiskopf explained. "The shaft was too short and I had to lean over and kind of lost sight of the ball on short putts," he said.

"Last night, I put the putter back in Arnie's locker with a note asking him to lengthen the shaft. Then, Eddie loaned me his mallet-head putter. I never putted with a mallet before. Eddie may never get it back.

Weiskopf made putts of 7, 10, 8, 12 twice and 2 feet. His only bogey was at No. 2 where he three-putted from 25 feet.

Art Wall, the bespectacled pro from Honesdale, Pa., who last week won the Insurance City Open had to withdraw because of a muscle spasm in his lower back. Al Besselink was disqualified for reporting late to the tee.

BUCS FALL FROM FIRST

Idle Giants Regain Lead

. . . PHILS SABOTAGE PIRATES

Pittsburgh (AP) — Jim Bunning scattered eight hits and Jack Brandt drove in two runs as Philadelphia defeated Pittsburgh 4-1 Thursday night and knocked the Pirates out of first place in the National League.

The defeat dropped Pittsburgh one-half game behind San Francisco, which was idle Thursday.

Philadelphia scored two runs in the fourth inning on a single by John Callison, a run-scoring double by Dick Groat and a double by Brandt.

The Phillies scored again in the sixth on a single by Brandt.

Their final run came in the ninth when Tony Taylor reached first on an error, stole second, went to third on a passed ball and stole home.

Pittsburgh's run came in the seventh when Donn Clendenon singled and Bill Mazeroski's line drive to center bounced over Brandt's head for a triple.

Only one other Pirate runner got as far as second against Bunning. That was in the third when Bob Veale and Matty Alou singled after two were out.

Borner, Breitfelder Advance

Kansas City, Mo. — Charlie Borner and Phil Breitfelder of Lincoln, Neb., moved into the quarterfinals of the Heart of America Golf Tournament here with two victories Thursday in the two-man, best-ball competition.

Borner and Breitfelder scored a 5 and 3 win over Bob Carroll and Bill Tucker of Kansas City in the morning match, then took a 1-up triumph over Bob Weaver and Charles Van Dyne of Kansas City in the afternoon.

The two wins put them into Friday morning's round against Don Dupske and John Powers of St. Louis. A win Friday morning would put them into the Friday afternoon semifinals.

The final match will be a 36-hole affair Saturday over the Milburn Country Club course.

The Borner-Breitfielder tandem had to rally in the afternoon match to win. Trailing by one after losing the 13th hole, the Lincoln team got even when Breitfelder sank a 15-foot birdie putt at the 14th.

The Lincoln entry then won the 18th hole with Borner dropping in a five-foot birdie putt.

Lincoln's other entry, R. B. Lau and Scott Mowbray lost in the morning round on the 21st hole to Kansas City's Leo Anderson and Bob Papscott.

HITZ SCORES HOLE-IN-ONE, MORE OR LESS

Lincoln golfer Wayne Hitz scored the first hole-in-one, more or less, of his golfing career Thursday at Holmes Park.

Starting on the 10th tee, Hitz watched his tee shot disappear on the fly into a large barrel some 200 yards down the right rough.

Hitz's playing partners, Fred Hill, Frank Kelly and Jay Luse allowed him to drop the ball out of the barrel and he went on to par the hole with a five. But his partners inserted the words "more or less" after the five.

Actually it should have been more since Hitz should have been penalized one stroke when he declared the ball unplayable and dropped out.

3 Shutouts Pitched In Softball Meet

KMTV Winner Wilson Tops Cast For Fremont Tourney

Fremont — Dean Wilson Jr. of Omaha, who won the KMTV Regional Golf Tournament at Omaha's Benson Park last weekend, heads a list of top Nebraska Golfers entered in this weekend's Fremont Invitational.

The two-day tournament at the Fremont Golf Club gets under way Saturday with qualifying rounds. The finals are slated for Sunday.

Wilson picked up his second major Nebraska tournament win with the victory over the long, wide - open Benson Park course. Earlier, he had won the Governor's Sweepstakes at Lincoln's Holmes Park course, like Benson, a long, wide - open layout.

The Fremont Golf Club course is much shorter than either the Benson or Holmes Park courses, measuring only 5,988 yards, but most of those yards are closely guarded by trees and other trouble.

Wilson's chief competition likely will come from Don Bridge of Norfolk, Vern Peterson of Cortland and a couple of Fremont golfers, Dave Franklin and Jack Flatt.

Tournament authorities also are hopeful of having Lincoln's Matt Taber in the field.

"We also would like to have some of Lincoln's fine young players show up," tournament chairman Dave Franklin noted Thursday afternoon.

The entry list Thursday afternoon included 120 names, 30 short of the desired number.

"We'll continue to take entries until we have 150 golfers," Franklin pointed out. "We'll even take them Saturday morning if they show up with an invitation and we still have spots open."

The Fremont tourney is being revived this year after being absent from the Nebraska tournament scene for a couple of years.

Little Cooking In Bronco Dealings On Mr. Gilchrist

Denver, Colo. (AP) — Little appears to be cooking in the Denver Broncos' effort to peddle their one - time fullback, Cookie Gilchrist, to other American Football League teams.

Bronco officials said Thursday they had another discussion with Oakland but no trade has been made. The Raiders are the only ones to have indicated publicly any interest in Gilchrist, who refused to report to the Broncos' this season after playing one year of a two-year contract.

Gilchrist showed up eight days late at the training camp but pulled out without even suiting up. He blasted the team's management and left for Toronto, Canada, where he was last reported by Denver friends.

Denver has been searching for help on the offensive and defensive lines where the Broncos are in need of seasoned performers.

They are reported to have been most interested in acquiring Dave Costa, Oakland four-year veteran, and another top caliber lineman for Gilchrist.

Club officials said there were no developments Thursday in the trade talk.

Coach Mac Speedie said he isn't going to trade Gilchrist for just anybody. At $42,500 per season, plus another $5,000 for off-season duties, Gilchrist was the highest paid veteran player in the AFL last season.

Denver's loss of Gilchrist is apt to be felt most severly in pass protection. Fellow players have rated Gilchrist among the best blockers in the league.

Orioles' Barber On Disabled List; Bertaina Recalled

Baltimore (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles placed veteran pitcher Steve Barber on the disabled list Thursday and recalled pitcher Frank Bertaina from their Rochester farm club.

Barber, suffering from tendonitis in his left elbow, has hurled only five innings since being named to the American League All - Star team in July.

The 27-year-old left-hander, a 20-game winner in 1963, reeled off eight victories in a row starting May 30 and for a while had the lowest earned run average among the league's starters. He currently has a 10-5 record and a 2.32 ERA.

—KOUFAX AGAINST BOLIN TONIGHT—

Dodgers Attempting To Cut Gap In Series With Frisco

San Francisco (AP)—San Francisco's Giants carry a narrow statistical edge Friday night as they open a three-game series against the Los Angeles Dodgers —with both teams flashing their top pitchers.

Bob Bolin, 7-8, meets southpaw ace Sandy Koufax, 20-7, in the opener as the Dodgers attempt to narrow the Giants' two - game National League edge. The Giants were only percentage points back of the league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates.

Juan Marichal, 18-5, and Don Drysdale, 9-13, meet on Saturday and the Sunday final game of the home stand will match the Giants' winningest pitcher, Gaylord Perry 20-3, against Claude Osteen, 13-10.

Statistically, the Giants' three pitchers have a total of 45 wins against 16 losses. The Dodgers, following Koufax's lead, have 42 wins, 30 losses.

Thus far in the their home stand the Giants are 9-3 and 40-24 for the season at Candlestick Park.

They are 6-6 with the Dodgers for the season.

A weekend crowd of 120,000 is expected for the three-day stand.

Perry, who recovered from an early season injury to become the Giants' top winner, lost his bid for his 21st win Wednesday night to Joe Nuxhall and the Cincinnati Reds, 9-4.

The Dodgers stretched their Wednesday game against Atlanta to 11 innings, finally taking it 2-1. The game boosted the Dodgers' home attendance over the two million mark—the fifth straight season they've reached that figure in the past seven years.

Baltimore (AP)—Paul Blair's 11th inning single following a throwing error by Luis Tiant gave the Baltimore Orioles a 4-3 victory over Cleveland Thursday night.

Brooks Robinson had opened the 11th with a walk. When Curt Blefary bunted, Tiant, trying for the force at second, threw wildly into center field, Robinson taking third and Blefary reaching second.

Bob Johnson was walked intentionally loading the bases, before Blair's single ended it.

Stu Miller pitched four innings of hitless relief, striking out six to gain the victory.

Persol, of Brooklyn, N.Y., scored often with jabs and left hooks in the first half of the fight and dominated the infighting with faster punching and by simply out-muscling Woody throughout.

Chargers Bought For $10 Million

San Diego, Calif. (AP) — A group of businessmen headed by officers of the National General Corp., bought the San Diego Chargers Thursday for a record $10 million.

Barron Hilton, founder and president of the Chargers, announced the sale, the largest financial transaction in the history of the American Football League.

Hilton turned the presidency over to Eugene Klein, 45, president of National General. Another buyer is Samuel Schulman, National General executive vice president. Both are from Beverly Hills, Calif.

Major Leagues To Up Pension Fund By 55%

Chicago (AP) — The major leagues voted Thursday to increase the players' pension fund share 55%, or $4 million annually, from TV receipts from the World Series and All-Star games in 1967 and 1968.

The club owners also voted to relieve the players of $2 per day contribution to the pension fund, now totaling $33 million, with the idea that the money could be diverted to the controversial payment of a $50,000-a-year salary to Marvin Miller, new executive director of the Major League Players Association.

Spitz, Katz Lead Yank Swimmers At Maccabiah

Sao Paulo, Brazil (AP) — A pair of 16-year-old stars, Mark Spitz and Paul Katz, and a drafted basketball player and diver led the American swimming team to six victories in seven events of the Pan American Maccabiah Games Thursday.

Spitz, from Santa Clara, Calif., captured two more individual gold medals and a relay gold for a total of five in two days. Katz, a New York schoolboy, won one individual gold and a relay gold for a total of four.

Spitz and Katz are the only two male swimmers on the team, so Coach Richard Fetters of Michigan State University drafted Howard Schwartz of the junior basketball team from Cincinnati, and diver Jay Moses of Cornell and Great Neck, N.Y. They more than held their own in helping to hand anchor man Spitz a 12-meter lead in the 400-meter freestyle relay. Spitz stretched it to 22 in beating Argentina in 4:09.2.

One of the nice things about owning it is selling it.

A new Volkswagen doesn't depreciate wildly the minute you turn the key.

In a sense, the older it gets the more valuable it gets.

So that in 5 years, the same VW will be worth more than some 5-year-old cars that cost twice as much to begin with.

Old VWs are worth a lot because a lot of people want them.

For one thing, it takes a real car nut to tell a clean used one from a new one. VWs always look like VWs.

Another reason is that they hold up.

A VW is put together so well, it's practically airtight. (It helps to open a window to close a door. Even on old ones.)

And, new VW or old, there's all that nice money you keep saving on gas, oil, tires, insurance, and repairs.

Which means you can get a nice price for it. (If, for some strange reason, you'd want to sell.)

It's the kind of economy that people are willing to pay an arm and a leg for.

Road Dept. Asks Bids On $5.2 Million Jobs

By United Press International

The State Roads Department announced Thursday it will open bids Sept. 15 on $5.2 million of highway construction projects.

Included in the batch are four Interstate 80 projects estimated to cost $2 million and four federal aid primary road work plans costing $1 million.

The department said it would ask bids on 13.3 miles of grading, gravel surfacing and four bridges in Keith and Lincoln counties between the Sutherland and Paxton interchanges.

The same work was eliminated from last month's bidding after a problem arose in connection with a property line along the Platte River. It has been settled.

In Seward County the department said it intends to ask bids for picnic shelters, public rest rooms and other roadside improvements east of the Goehner interchange on the Interstate.

In the western part of the state, bids will be offered for work on federal primary roads in Kimball County on 3.6 miles of Neb. 71 north of Kimball. The project entails grading, culverts, two bridges and guard rails.

In Box Butte County, 8.4 miles of federal primary road work on Neb. 2 between Hemingford and Alliance will be offered for bid. The plan is to grade, add culverts and subgrade the roadway.

The department said it would also ask bids on lighting the bridge across the Missouri River at Nebraska City in Otoe County and Fremont County, Iowa.

Beatniks' Attire Altered By Police, Troops In Java

Jakarta (AP)—Troops and police in central Java, where rock 'n' roll is forbidden, are reported ripping garments and dismantling hairdoes of Indonesian beatniks and their over coifed, tight-skirted girl friends.

Eye-witnesses said authorities insert a beer bottle between leg and pants-leg to gauge the snugness of boys' trousers and rip them up the seams if they are deemed too tight.

Skirts, measured by eye, get similar treatment and beehive hair is shaken down.

Device To Clock Talk Invented

London (AP)—A British professor says he has devised a contraption to measure how much time a human being spends in talk. Richard Oldfield, a director of the Medical Research Council's Psycholinguistics Unit at Oxford, says he got the idea while in his bath.

A tiny microphone is attached to the talker's throat. Wired to the mike is an electric clock, or meter, which fits into the pocket. It totes up the time spent in talking. First object of the professor's chatterbox is to aid psychiatric research.

WHEREAS, Section 15-231, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska of 1943 provides that a primary city may purchase or otherwise acquire ground for and erect, establish, operate, regulate and repair a city hospital or any hospital, the governing board of which is appointed by the mayor or council; to receive donations and bequests of money or property for the same in trust or otherwise; and to issue bonds of the city for acquiring, constructing reconstructing, improving, extending, equipping, or furnishing such hospital facilities; and

WHEREAS, Section 15-244, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska of 1943 provides that a primary city may borrow money on the credit of the city and pledge the credit, revenue and public property of the city for the payment thereof when authorized in the manner provided in said section, and in the manner otherwise provided by law or by the home rule charter of the city, and said section further provides that said city shall have power to issue revenue bonds for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, reconstructing, improving, extending, equipping or furnishing any revenue producing facility within or without the city which is for a public purpose; and

WHEREAS Section 2, Paragraph 27 of Article II of the Charter of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, provides that said City shall have the right and power to purchase or otherwise acquire ground for and erect, establish, maintain, operate, regulate, and repair a city hospital, or any hospital, the governing board of which is appointed by the mayor or council; to receive donations and bequests of money or property for the same in trust or otherwise; and to issue bonds of the City for acquiring, constructing, reconstructing, improving, extending, equipping, or furnishing such hospital facilities; and

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF LINCOLN, NEBRASKA:

SECTION 1. FINDINGS AND DETERMINATIONS. The Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, hereby finds and determines:

The Lincoln General Hospital, the governing board of which is appointed by the Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, is a city hospital and a revenue producing facility of the City of Lincoln, which city is a city of the primary class. In order to promote and protect the health of the inhabitants of the City of Lincoln, and otherwise to advance the general welfare thereof, the City is presently undertaking a program of improvements and extensions to the Lincoln General Hospital by the construction and equipping of a new building thereat to provide additional hospital facilities therefor. To finance in part the cost of the construction and equipping of said new building, the City has heretofore issued and now has outstanding its $3,600,000 principal amount Hospital Revenue Bonds, Series of 1965, which bonds were issued under and pursuant to the provision of Ordinance No. 8753, and which bonds are payable solely from the gross revenues derived from the operation of the Lincoln General Hospital. By reason of the anticipated growth of the City of Lincoln and recent enactments of the Congress of the United States of America pertaining to the medical care of the citizens thereof, there will be a need in the reasonably foreseeable immediate future for extra hospital facilities of the City of Lincoln in addition to those contemplated at the commencement of the foregoing program. To provide for the satisfaction of such need it is necessary and desirable that additional floors be added to the new building presently being constructed as aforesaid, and it is in the economic interest of the City that such additional floors be constructed coincidentally with the construction of the said building, to be furnished and equipped as they are put into immediate use. The cost of construction of such additional floors is found and determined by this Council to be not less than $700,000.

The Lincoln Hospital Association, a non-profit corporation, the governing board of which is appointed by the Council of the City of Lincoln and the general nature of the business of which is, in substance, to provide hospital facilities for the City, has verbally proposed to the City through the governing board of said Association, that if the City shall authorize by an ordinance substantially in the form of this Ordinance the issuance of not less than $700,000 principal amount of revenue bonds of the City for the purpose of paying the cost of constructing the aforesaid additional floors to the said building presently being constructed at the Lincoln General Hospital, and shall sell such bonds, said Association would enter into an agreement with the City providing, in substance, for the annual payment by said Association to the City of an amount equal to the respective annual amounts of interest to accrue on said bonds, such amounts to be applied by the City for hospital purposes as the City in its sole discretion may determine, and such payments by the Association to be subject to (a) the terms, provisions and convenants of all agreements heretofore made by said Association pertaining or with respect to said Ordinance No. 8753 and the bonds heretofore or hereafter issued thereunder and (b) the rights and interests, if any, under said agreements of the holders of those bonds. Said Association has further verbally provided through its governing board that the foregoing proposal shall be deemed to have been accepted by said City when the City shall have authorized the issuance of the aforesaid bonds in an amount not less than $700,000 for the aforesaid purposes, and that said proposal shall be for the benefit of the Association, the City of Lincoln, the holders of all bonds heretofore or hereafter issued under Ordinance No. 8753 and the holders of all bonds issued under this Ordinance, as their interests may appear.

The Council of the City of Lincoln hereby further finds and determines that in order to pay the costs of the aforesaid improvements and extensions to the Lincoln General Hospital represented by the construction of the aforesaid additional floors to the building presently being constructed at said hospital, it is necessary and desirable that the City of Lincoln authorize the issuance and sale of its revenue bonds in the principal amount of $700,000.

SECTION 2. DEFINITIONS. As used in this Ordinance, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise:

(a) "bonds issued under Ordinance No. 8753" shall mean and include any and all bonds heretofore or hereafter issued under Ordinance No. 8753, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, shall include the Hospital Revenue Bonds, Series of 1965, heretofore issued under that ordinance and any Additional Bonds and Completion Bonds, as such terms are defined in that ordinance, which may hereafter be issued under and pursuant thereto;

(b) "City" shall mean the City of Lincoln, Nebraska;

(c) "Lincoln General Hospital" shall mean and include the lands, buildings, facilities and equipment and other real and personal property comprising the Lincoln General Hospital as existing on the date of effectiveness of this Ordinance, and shall also mean and include all additions, extensions, expansions, improvements, betterments and equippings thereto and thereof, howsoever and from whatever source now being or hereafter made (including those made and financed from the proceeds of bonds issued under Ordinance No. 8753 and from the proceeds of the Subordinate Series A Bonds), but shall not include the now existing buildings and appurtenant facilities for housing hospital personnel (including for housing resident physicians and interns), the revenues derived from the operation of which have heretofore been pledged to the payment of the obligations issued for the financing thereof, or any buildings and appurtenant facilities for housing hospital personnel hereafter built or acquired if such buildings and appurtenant facilities are financed from obligations which are issued separate and apart from Ordinance No. 8753 or this Ordinance;

Said Ordinance Number 9076 contains provisions defining terms; setting forth the Revenues pledged to the payment of the interest on and principal of this Bond and the issue of which it is one and the deposit, application and disbursement of said Revenues; setting forth the nature and extent and manner of enforcement of the security for said bonds and of such pledge and the rights and remedies of the holder hereof with respect thereto; permitting the modification in certain respects under the limitatons set forth therein of the rights and obligations thereunder of the City of Lincoln and of the holders of this Bond and the coupons appertaining hereto when such modifications are assented to and authorized in writing by the holders of seventy-five per cent (75%) of the principal amount of said issue of Bonds then outstanding under said Ordinance, excluding Bonds directly or indirectly owned or controlled by the City; the terms and conditions upon which this Bond is issued and upon which have heretofore been issued and hereafter may be issued other obligations of the City of Lincoln payable as to principal, premium and interest from the aforesaid Revenues prior to the payment of the principal and interest of this Bond and the issue of which it is one and secured by a pledge of said Revenues superior to the pledge thereof to this Bond and the issue of which it is one; and the rights, duties and obligations of the City of Lincoln under said Ordinance. Reference is hereby made to said Ordinance, to all of the provisions of which any holder of this Bond by the acceptance thereof thereby assents and copies of which are on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Lincoln, for a more complete description of the foregoing and of the other matters contained therein.

This Bond and the Bonds of the issue of which this Bond is one are subject to redemption at the option of the City of Lincoln prior to their stated maturity at any time after the date hereof, in whole, or in part from time to time, at a redemption price equal to the principal sum redeemed and the interest accrued on such principal sum to the date fixed for redemption. If at any time less than all the Bonds of said issue are called for redemption, the Bonds to be redeemed shall be selected by lot. If this Bond shall be called for redemption, notice of the redemption hereof, specifying the designation, date, number and maturity of this Bond and the date fixed for its redemption shall be given by publication of such notice once in a daily newspaper printed in the English language and customarily published on each business day and of general circulation in the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, and once in The Daily Bond Buyer, a financial publication published in the City of New York, New York, or in lieu of such publication in The Daily Bond Buyer, such notice shall be published in at least one daily newspaper printed in the English language and customarily published on each business day and of general circulation in either of the Cities of Chicago, Illinois, or New York, New York, the date of publication of such notice in any case to be at least thirty days prior to the date fixed for redemption, and if such notice shall have been given and payment hereof duly made or provided for, interest hereon shall cease from and after the date so specified.

This Bond and the issue of which it is one are payable solely from the fees, rentals, charges, income and other moneys constituting "Revenues" as such term is defined in the aforesaid Ordinance No. 9076, derived by the City of Lincoln from the operation of the Lincoln General Hospital, including all extensions, improvements and betterments thereto, subject to (i) the prior payment from said Revenues of the principal, premium and interest of $3,600,000 Hospital Revenue Bonds, Series of 1965, heretofore issued by the City under Ordinance No. 8753 adopted by the Council of said City on June 28, 1965 and any bonds of the City hereafter issued under and pursuant to that ordinance which are payable from said Revenues on a parity with said Series of 1965 Bonds; (ii) the prior pyments, deposits and credits required by said Ordinance No. 8753 to be made from said Revenues into the Bond and Interest Account, the Reserve Account, the Operation and Maintenance Account and the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account created and maintained pursuant to that ordinance; and (iii) all terms, provisions and conditions of said Ordinance No. 8753. Said Revenues have been, and hereby are, pledged to the punctual payment of the principal of and interest on this Bond and the Bonds of the issue of which it is one, subject to the prior and superior pledge of said Revenues created in, by or pursuant to said Ordinance No. 8753 for the payment and security of the aforesaid Series of 1965 Bonds and of any other bonds which may hereafter be issued under and pursuant to that ordinance and are equally and ratably secured with said Series of 1965 Bonds. It is hereby certified and recited that all acts, conditions and things required to be done precedent to and in the issuance of this Bond and the issue of which it is one have been done and have happened and have been performed in regular and due time, form and manner of law, and that provision has been made for depositing in the separate fund of the City designated as the "Lincoln General Hospital Fund" created by said Ordinance No. 8753 and maintained pursuant to that ordinance and Ordinance Number 9076—all the aforesaid Revenues received or derived from the operation of the Lincoln General Hospital, to be applied to the purposes set forth above and in the aforesaid Ordinances in the manner provided therein. The City of Lincoln hereby covenants and agrees with the holder hereof that it will establish, maintain, revise and collect charges and rates throughout the life of this Bond for the use and services of the facilities of said hospital, at least sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal and interest of the aforesaid Series of 1965 Bonds and of all other bonds hereafter issued payable on a parity and equally and ratably secured therewith, as the same severally fall due, and to provide the required reserves therefor; to provide for the payment of the principal and interest of this Bond and the Bonds of the issue of which it is one, as the same severally fall due; to pay, together with any other moneys that may be and are lawfully applied thereto, all cost associated with the ownership, operation, maintenance, renewal and replacement of said hospital; and to carry out all other covenants contained in the aforesaid Ordinances.

The Revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital shall be and hereby are pledged to the punctual payment of the principal of an interest on the Subordinate Series A Bonds and to the security thereof in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, and the holders of said Bonds shall have a lien upon said Revenues in accordance with such provisions, which pledge and lien shall, however, be subject and inferior to the pledge of and lien upon said Revenues created in, by or pursuant to Ordinance No. 8753 for the payment and security of the bonds issued under that ordinance. The foregoing pledge and lien created by this Ordinance shall be valid, binding and effective from the time of the enactment of this Ordinance, and the moneys representing said Revenues shall be immediately subject to said pledge and lien upon receipt thereof by the City without any physical delivery or further act. The Subordinate Series A Bonds shall not in any event be a debt of said City within the meaning of any constitutional, statutory, or charter limitation upon the creation of general obligation indebtedness of the City, nor shall they impose any general liability upon the City, and the City shall not be liable for the payment thereof out of any funds of the City other than the Revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital and the Lincoln General Hospital Fund created by Section 6 of Ordinance No. 8753 and hereinafter continued by this section, into which fund such Revenues shall be deposited.

The Lincoln General Hospital Fund (herein called the "Hospital Fund") and the accounts therein created by Section 6 of Ordinance No. 8753 shall continue to be maintained. All the Revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital shall continue to be collected, deposited, credited, applied and disbursed as provided in Ordinance No. 8753 and as provided hereinafter in this section.

There is hereby created in the Surplus Account created by Ordinance No. 8753 in the Hospital Fund, a separate special account to be designated as the "Subordinate Series A Bonds Bond and Interest Account." There are hereby also created two sub-accounts in said Subordinate Series A Bonds Bond and Interest Account, such two sub-accounts to be known as the "Subordinate Series A Bonds Interest Account" and the "Subordinate Series A Bonds Sinking Fund Account," to which accounts there shall be credited from the moneys in the Hospital Fund the following amounts at the following times:

1. During such time as the aggregate of (i) the Revenues of the Lincoln General Hospital, exclusive of any moneys received by the City from the Lincoln Hospital Association pursuant to the proposal of said Association referred to in Section 1 hereof ,and (ii) any other moneys which may be and are lawfully applied thereto, are sufficient to make the credits and payments required by parts FIRST through FOURTH of Section 6 of Ordinance No. .8753, all moneys received by the City from said Association pursuant to said proposal shall, upon receipt thereof by the City, be deposited in the Hospital Fund and immediately credited to The Subordinate Series A Bonds Interest Account therein unless and until there is on credit to said account an amount equal to the next two installments of interest to become due on the Subordinate Series A Bonds. Without limiting the applicability of the preceding sentence, but supplemental thereto, if on the first business day of any month the moneys credited to said Subordinate Series A Bonds Interest Account are less than the amount of interest to become due and payable on said Bonds on the next date on which an installment of interest is payable thereon, then in that event on such first business day, after the credits from the moneys in the Hospital Fund required by parts FIRST through FOURTH of Section 6 of Ordinance No. 8753 have been made, there shall be credited from the moneys in said fund to said Subordinate Series A Bonds Interest Account, an amount such that, if the same amount were so credited to said sub-account on the first business day of each succeeding month thereafter prior to the next date on which an installment of interest falls due on the Subordinate Series A Bonds, the aggregate of the amounts so credited to this sub-account will, on such next interest payment date be equal to the installment of interest falling due on such date on the Subordinate Series A Bonds.

2. Commencing with the month of September, 1995, on the first business day of that month and on the first business day of each succeeding month thereafter, after the credits from the moneys in the Hospital Fund required by parts FIRST through FOURTH of Section 6 of Ordinance No. 8753 have been made, there shall be credited from said moneys to the Subordinate Series A Bonds Sinking Fund Account an amount such that, if the same amount were so credited to this sub-account on the first business day of each succeeding month thereafter prior to the next ensuing September 1, the aggregate of the amounts so credited to this sub-account would on such next ensuing September 1 be equal to the respective amounts specificied opposite such next ensuing September 1, as follows:

DATE	Amount
September 1, 1996	$225,000
September 1, 1997	$235,000
September 1, 1998	$240,000

In making the credits to said Subordinate Series A Bonds Sinking Fund Account required by this section, consideration shall be given to an allowance made for earnings realized and received on the investment of moneys in said sub-account or any credits otherwise made to said sub-account. The moneys credited to the Subordinate Series A Bonds Sinking Fund Account shall, without further authorization or direction of the Council of the City, be applied by the Director of Finance on each September 1 set forth above in this paragraph, (or on each September 1 as is hereinafter set forth in this section, as may be applicable), to the redemption of said Subordinate Series A Bonds in the respective principal amounts specified opposite each such date above (or in the respective principal amounts hereinafter specified in this section, as may be applicable). The Director of Finance shall give notice of all such redemptions in the name and on behalf of the City, in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 hereof or, if said Bonds are outstanding in the form of a single Bond as provided in Section 5 hereof, then in accordance with the provisions of said Bond. The Director of Finance may also, without further authorization or direction of the Council, apply the moneys credited to this sub-account for the retirement of the Subordinate Series A Bonds to the purchase of said Bonds, in which event the principal amount of said Bonds required to be redeemed on the next respective ensuing Sinking Fund Account installment date shall be reduced by the principal amount of said Bonds so purchased; provided, however, that no Subordinate Series A Bonds shall be purchased during the interval between the date on which notice of redemption of said Bonds from Sinking Fund Account installments is given and the date of redemption set forth in such notice, unless the Bonds so purchased are Bonds called for redemption in such notice or are purchased from moneys other than those credited to this sub-account, and provided further, that no purchases of Bonds shall be made if such purchase would require the sale at a loss of securities credited to the Sinking Fund Account unless the difference between the actual purchase price (including accrued interest and any brokerage or other charge) paid for such Bonds and the face amount or par value thereof is greater than the loss upon the sale of any such securities. Any purchase of Bonds pursuant to this paragraph may be made with or without tenders of Bonds and at either public or private sale, but in any event at a purchase price (including accrued interest and any brokerage or other charge) not to exceed the face amount or par value of the Bond to be purchased. All Bonds purchased or redeemed pursuant to this paragraph shall be cancelled and not reissued.

Moneys credited to the Subordinate Series A Bonds Bond and Interest Account shall be used and applied solely to the payment of the interest on and the retirement of the principal of the said Bonds and shall be so used and applied in accordance with this section. The moneys credited to said account shall be transferred to the County Treasurer of the County of Lancaster or other paying agents for said Bonds and the coupons pertaining thereto in such amounts and at such times as shall be necessary to pay the principal and interest on said Bonds as the same become due and payable, whether upon the maturity, the redemption or the purchase thereof.

If at any time there are no longer outstanding any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued under Ordinance No. 8753, then, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section (A) from and after such time as said bonds are no longer outstanding: (i) the Subordinate Series A Bonds Bond and Interest Account (including the sub-accounts therein) heretofore created in this section shall no longer be part of the Surplus Account created by Section 6 of Ordinance No. 8753 but shall constitute a separate account (and sub-accounts) within the Hospital Fund; (ii) no further credits shall be made to the Bond and Interest Account or the Reserve Account created by Section 6 of Ordinance No. 8753; (iii) the monthly credits required by this section to be made into the Subordinate Series A Bonds Bond and Interest Account shall be made in each month prior to the making of the monthly credits required by parts THIRD and FOURTH of Section 6 of Ordinance No. 8753; and (iv) the moneys, if any, then credited to the Reserve Account created by Section 6 of Ordinance No. 8753 shall be held as a reserve for the payment of the principal and interest of the Subordinate Series A Bonds and shall be applied to such payment whenever the moneys credited to the Subordinate Series A Bonds Bond and Interest Account are insufficient to make such payments when due, and if not so applied, shall be applied to the redemption of said Bonds whenever the aggregate of the amount then credited to said Reserve Account and the amount then credited to the Subordinate Series A Bonds Bond and Interest Account shall be sufficient to redeem all Subordinate Series A Bonds then outstanding, including interest thereon to the date of such redemption; and (B) if the first day on which there are no longer outstanding any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued under Ordinance No. 8753 is prior to September 1, 1995, then in order to accelerate the times of redemption of the Subordinate Series A Bonds over the times set forth in paragraph numbered 2 above this section, the monthly credits required by said paragraph numbered 2 to be made to the Subordinate Series A Bonds Sinking Fund Account in the Subordinate Series A Bonds Bond and Interest Account shall commence with the first business day of the month which follows the first month in which there are no longer outstanding any bonds issued under Ordinance No. 8753, and shall in each month be in an amount such that if the same amount were so credited to the said Sinking Fund Account on the first business day of each month thereafter prior to the fourth September 1 following the day on which there are no longer outstanding any bonds issued under Ordinance No. 8753 (or prior to the third September 1 following the day on which there are no longer outstanding any bonds outstanding under Ordinance No. 8753 if the day on which there are no longer outstanding any bonds issued under Ordinance No. 8753 is itself a September 1), the aggregate of the amounts so credited to the Subordinate Series A Bonds Sinking Fund Account would, by such fourth September 1 (or by such third September 1, as the case may be), be equal to $700,000. The moneys credited to the Subordinate Series A Bonds Sinking Fund Account pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be applied, on each respective September 1 which follows the making of such credits, to the redemption of Subordinate Series A Bonds in the amounts on credit to said Account on each such date, or may be applied to the purchase of said Bonds, with such redemptions and purchases to be made as provided in paragraph numbered 2 above of this section.

Until used and applied in accordance with this Ordinance and Ordinance No. 8753, all moneys held in the Hospital Fund, including in any of the accounts or subaccounts therein, and all moneys held in the Construction Fund created by Ordinance No. 8753, and the securities in which such moneys may from time to time be invested, shall, subject to applicable law, be held in trust for the equal and ratable benefit and security of the holders of the Subordinate Series A Bonds, subject, except for the proceeds of the sale of the Subordinate Series A Bonds, to the prior and superior claim thereon of the holders of the bonds issued under Ordinance No. 8753. All moneys held by any paying agent for the payment of principal, interest and premium of the Subordinate Series A Bonds, including any moneys held by the County Treasurer of Lancaster County for such purpose, shall be held by such agent or treasurer in trust for the equal and ratable benefit and security of the Bonds for which moneys have been so set aside.

The Subordinate Series A Bonds are hereby sold to First National Bank & Trust Company of Lincoln, as trustee, at a purchase price consisting of the principal amount of said Bonds and the interest accrued thereon from September 1, 1966 to the date of delivery of and payment therefor. As provided in Section 5 hereof, said Bonds shall be issued to said purchaser in the form of a single Bond, fully registered in the name of said purchaser as to both principal and interest. Upon having been executed and registered in the office of the Auditor of Public Accounts of the State of Nebraska and the Finance Department of the City in accordance with the provisions hereof, said single fully registered Bond shall thereupon be delivered by the Director of Finance to the aforesaid purchaser upon payment to the City of said purchase price. The accrued interest received upon the sale of the Subordinate Series A Bonds shall be deposited in the Hospital Fund and credited to the Interest Account in the Subordinate Series A Bonds Bond and Interest Account, and the balance of the proceeds of the sale of said Bonds shall be deposited in the Hospital Construction Fund created by Section 13 of Ordinance No. 8753 to the credit of a separate account therein to be known as the "Subordinate Series A Bonds Construction Account." The moneys created to said Construction Account shall be used and applied solely to the payment of the costs of construction of the additional floors to the Lincoln General Hospital more fully referred to in Section 1 hereof, including in such costs legal and financial services, publications and other costs incident to the issuance of the Subordinate Series A Bonds and such construction. The moneys credited to said account shall be invested in such securities which mature in such amounts and at such times, and withdrawals from said account shall be made upon such claims and in accordance with such procedures, as is provided by Ordinance No. 8753 for other moneys credited to the Hospital Construction Fund. If upon the completion, as certified by the City's architect or engineer or other architect, if any, appointed or employed for the construction of said additional floors, any moneys shall remain credited to said account, such moneys shall, at the option of the City (i) be held in the Hospital Construction Fund and be used and applied to the payment of any costs of construction, furnishing and equipping to be financed from said Fund as provided in Section 13 of said Ordinance No. 8753; (ii) be credited to the Reserve Account created by Ordinance No. 8753 unless and until there shall then be credited thereto the maximum amount required by that ordinance to be maintained therein; (iii) be credited to the Extraordinary Repairs and Replacement Account created by Ordinance No. 8753 unless and until there is then credited thereto the maximum amount required by that ordinance to be maintained therein; (iv) be applied to the furnishing and equipping of the additional floors, the costs of the construction of which are to be financed from the Subordinate Series A Bonds Construction Account, or (v) be used and applied to the redemption of Subordinate Series A Bonds.

Church Council Disapproves Of Liquor By Drink Proposal

The Lincoln Council of Churches executive committee Thursday passed overwhelmingly a resolution disapproving of liquor-by-the-drink within Lincoln and urged the measure be defeated should it be placed on the ballot in November.

The 19-man committee garnered 15 votes for the resolution, with two against and two abstentions. The council resolution called for opposition to any increase in the availability of alcohol such as could follow approvement of liquor-by-the drink.

The council's resolution strongly criticised the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce for its efforts to have the issue put on the November ballot. The Chamber has been circulating petitions in Lincoln to put the matter up for a vote.

Sufficient Interest

The Chamber of Commerce has maintained that it will not take a stand on either side of the measure, but that sufficient interest has been shown in the community for it to be placed on the ballot.

Terming the measure "divisive both in the community and in the chamber membership", the resolution lamented the cost of putting such a measure up for a vote and the energies of persons spent promoting or opposing a "matter of doubtful constructive benefit, not beneficial to the city."

Reportedly, the chamber's petitions still lack over 800 names of the 3,376 needed to put the matter on the ballot.

The resolution included three major areas in which the committee felt that liquor-by-the-drink would intensify existing problems. The statement noted the rising spread of alcoholism, the higher rate of alcohol consumption in cities with liquor-by-the-drink laws, and the mounting number of automobile accidents caused by alcohol.

Iowa Statistics

Using Iowa traffic statistics, the statement shows increases in those accidents directly traceable to alcohol, as well as corresponding increases in the total number of accidents and fatalities.

The council also called for a re-examination of bottle club laws, and the location and issuance of liquor licenses. The resolution claimed that the bottle club operation within the city now extends far beyond the original intent of the legislators.

The resolution also urged that more consideration be given by the Nebraska Liquor Control Commission to local decisions concerning the location of establishments selling alcohol.

"Some may presume that liquor-by-the-drink will make Lincoln more attractive to conventions and commercially," the statement said, but that the dollars spent in this way would not be spent for goods and services in Lincoln stores.

The Rev. Carroll Lemon, executive secretary of the Lincoln Council of Churches, emphasized that the resolution spoke only for the organization and not for the individual member churches.

EARTH SEEN FROM MOON

Medicare Brings Much Red Tape, No Stampede

Washington (AP)—Now nearly two months old, and operating with far fewer bugs than had been feared, the nation's revolutionary medicare program has demonstrated two things:

1. The country's senior citizens are not hypochondriacs straining at the leash to rush to doctors' offices and hospitals.

2. Into whatever field the government advances, it is apt to generate a snowstorm of paperwork.

Warnings that hospitals would be jammed to the point of chaos have proved groundless, a nationwide survey by the Associated Press shows. Latest reports show that admissions have risen only about three per cent, and in many cases occupancy is below capacity. Admissions under medicare thus far total about 700,000.

Red Tape

The chief complaints turned up in the survey are about the forms that must be filled out. Mt. Sinai Hospital in New York City has hired 42 extra clerks at an annual cost of $200,000 to take care of the paperwork. In Sacramento, Calif., Dr. Wayne Pollock, executive director of two large hospitals, commented:

"There is a great love of paperwork on the part of federal bureaucrats. The more pieces of paper, the more they love it."

Social Security headquarters replies that where expenditure of tax money is concerned, careful accounting is necessary. It has sent teams into the field to explain the forms, and recommend simplification where possible.

Grumbling

Grumbling among patients is mostly to the effect that they didn't realize the government is not picking up the whole tab. Glenn Bailey, administrator of Deaconness Hospital in Great Falls, Mont said many patients "don't understand the benefits and particularly are confused with the paperwork. The billings can be a problem. Some forget their ID."

The medicare program, enacted after years of controversy, took effect July 1. It provides (A) hospital care for 19.1 million persons aged 65 and over but they must pay the first $40 of the bill, (B) partial payment of doctors' bills for 17 million persons who signed up to pay $3 a month for this insurance. Under the latter plan, 80% of the doctor's bill after the first $50 is paid by the government.

President Johnson, needling prophets of chaos, said last Friday that prior to July 1 the government organized "a round-the-clock crisis center to receive the flood of complaints that were forcast . . . But there was no crisis for the crisis center to meet."

Spurs Desegregation

Medicare has been a potent spur to desegregation in hospitals. To qualify, hospitals must comply with the civil rights act of 1964. Social Security says 6,000 hospitals with 96% of all hospital beds have qualified.

A majority of hospitals in the Deep South have met the test, said Douglass M. Richard, regional representative of the Bureau of Health Insurance for Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee.

He said that of 1,174 hospitals in these seven states, 964 have applied to take part in medicare, and 781 are now participating.

Rusk Favors Staying In U.N. Even With China

Washington (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk said Thursday he would favor the United States remaining in the United Nations if Communist China is admitted to the world body. But he doubted Peking would get a U.N. seat.

Rusk gave this response to Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., when asked at a Senate preparedness subcommittee hearing whether the United States should quit the U.N. "if we were voted down" in the effort to keep out Red China.

Stock Prices Fall After Early Rally

New York (AP)—The stock market recovery faltered Thursday early in its second session and stocks took another sharp loss. Trading was moderate.

The Dow Jones industrial average sank 7.18 to 792.37, reversing an advance which saw it rise 3.90 to 803.45 in the first half hour. It was the eighth decline in nine sessions.

Volume was 6.76 million shares compared with 7.05 million Wednesday.

Glamor stocks paced the early rally and were the most prominent losers on the decline.

Analysts saw the action as purely technical, lacking any outstanding news to account either for the early rise or the later decline.

To speculators who figured that Wednesday was the temporary bottom of a long decline, Thursday's action was a mighty bear trap which closed its jaws with a resounding clack.

Xerox, one of the darlings of the investment funds, sold as high as 200⅜ Thursday but closed at 184⅛ for a loss of 15⅝.

It was a grievous day for the once high-flyiihg glamor stocks. Fairchild Camera fell 11¾ to 191¼, Polaroid 9⅜ to 153⅛ and Texas Instruments 4⅜ to 128¾.

"There is still no clear-cut bottom visible," said Bache & Co.

Even before the session began with its rosy glow of advancing prices, L.O. Hooper of W.E. Hutton said.

"To buy for a rally in a bear market is much like selling short for a turn in a bull market. It may work, but the risk is large in relation to the profit potential."

Indicator Digest, in an advisory dated Aug. 23, said: "The primary bear market will go on and it is a vicious one."

Of 1,424 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange, 889 fell and 310 rose. New lows for the year totaled 203. The two new highs were Magnavox and Procter and Gamble.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 2.7 to 284.4 with industrials off 3.9, rails off 1.9 and utilities off .6.

Corporate and U.S. government bonds declined.

EVERYBODY'S MONEY:

Political Promises Termed Important Factor In Riots

By Merryle S. Rukeyser

Satisfaction in this life is the ratio between what you expect and what you get.

This truism was dramatized in the recent colloquy before the Senate subcommittee dealing with the crisis in American cities between Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach and his exchief and one-time principal sponsor, Sen. Robert Kennedy of New York.

In diagnosing the causes of riots, an important causal factor has been the building of castles in the air by the administration in its widely ballyhooed war against poverty. Unfortunately, the political blue sky has created the impression that the economic millenium was just around the corner. Now President Johnson and Vice President Humphrey, reaping the whirlwind, are properly plumping for respect for law and order.

This writer and the American management philosophy have faith in the capacity for improvement in levels of material wellbeing. But the process of progress is accelerated by a sense of individual responsibility and self help. It is enervating and destructive for vote hungry politicians to encourage people to infer that better living can be provided overnight by passing new laws and by federal subsidies.

The giant strides in living standards have stemmed from the fruits of the creative mind in science, invention and engineering. Tangible progress is implemented by the developments of process engineers, managers of improved technology, by the increasing investment of savings in mechanized and automated labor-aiding tools of production, by new inventions, and by the genius of the managing directors of business.

Mostly Unproductive

It is high time to reaffirm the truism that government is for the most part unproductive overhead, and not a producer of real wealth. Its power is largely redistribution of wealth through robbing Peter to pay Paul.

It is regrettable that when the President and the Vice President are trying to calm down the desire to riot that the attorney general should testify that some "unpredictable event" could touch off riots in 30 to 40 cities. Such loose talk is analogous to pointing out that any nut could start trouble in a theater by yelling "fire."

It is also gratuitous for the attorney general to ascribe past riots to poverty and despair and not to Communists or other agitators. Certainly at the plateau of a long economic boom, existing poverty, however regrettable, is not greater than before. The more dynamic and changing factor of despair may indeed reflect the frustration of unsophisticated persons who took at face value the promises of politicians in party platforms and self serving speeches.

Sen. Kennedy further stirred up the fervent by indicating that the Johnson administration has no program for dealing with the ills of the cities. Certainly mere personal ambition for greater political preferment is no excuse for playing fast and loose with the welfare of the American people.

MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER

The issue is not whether we are prosperous enough or whether our living standards are high enough. Dynamic business statesmen, with a sense of reality, are forever seeking to promote higher sights in respect to American living standards. The legitimate ambition of employes is continuously to get more and better goods in exchange for a week's work.

Obviously, if there were no slums, no unemployment, no racial bias or other imperfections on the national horizon, it would be more difficult for local personalities and others in the "conflict business" to fan discontent.

The constructive management philosophy is to do better tomorrow what we are doing well today.

Poverty and affluence are relative terms. What is deemed intolerable in this country for those at the bottom of the economic heap would represent a big rise in living standards in an underdeveloped nation such as India.

While in a free society there should be flexibility in public expressions and in the right to petition, it is important to identify the sources of demands and to determine the sincerity of those stating positions. Those in the "conflict business" have no special rights to be chronic trouble makers. Obviously if there were no troubled waters, they couldn't find them to fish in.

(Mr. Rukeyser will be pleased to receive inquiries from readers with stamped self-addressed envelopes concerning their financial problems in care of The Lincoln Star. Questions of general interest will be answered in the column. Others, to the extent time permits, will be handled by mail.)

35% Loup River Canal Repaired

Columbus (AP) — Chief hydraulic engineer Royal Clark of the Loup River Public Power District said Thursday limited diversion of Loup River flood-damaged canal system will begin within a few days.

He said repair work on the canal was about 35% completed as of Wednesday.

The canal system suffered an estimated $590,000 in damages in the Aug. 12 flooding of the Loup and Cedar Rivers.

Clark noted that repair work was being expedited because of the urgent water need of the Nebraska Public Power System's hydro electric power generating plant, all but idle since the flood.

Earth moving equipment from five construction companies was being used to repair the nine separate breaks in dikes or canal banks in the area of the headworks, about six miles southwest of Genoa.

Western Electric Asks Industrial Area Designation

Omaha (AP) — The Douglas County Board was asked by Western Electric to declare the company's Omaha works 390-acre site near Millard to be an industrial area.

N. Howard Nelson, manager of the plant, said the request was made "to allay the fears of those people who have expressed concern that if Omaha does not annex the plant at this time, Millard will."

The Omaha City Planning Board has recommended annexation and the City Council is to vote on the recommendation next Tuesday.

Valuation Of Omaha Schools Up 21 Pct.

Prices Weaken In Grain Mart

Chicago (AP) — The grain futures market broke out of its recent rather narrow trading range Thursday and drifted into weakness after a moderate setback had broken into accumulations of stop loss selling orders.

All contracts closed at about their lows of the day with wheat, corn and oats down more than a cent in spots, rye as much as 3 cents and soybeans off 7 cents for the September delivery.

Trade generally had been the slowest in many days until the last half hour or so when selling speeded up.

Wheat was ⅝ to 1½ cent a bushel lower at the close, September $1.87⅜; corn ⅞ to 1¾ lower, September $1.47½-⅝; oats ¼ to 1¼ lower, September 76 cents; rye ½ to 2¾ lower, September $1.28½; soybeans 2¾ to 7 cents lower, September $3.46-45½.
